Henry Steele Commager, Donald L. Miller, 2010-05-11 Drawing on previously unpublished eyewitness accounts prizewinning historian Donald L Miller has written what critics are calling one of the most powerful accounts of warfare ever published Here are the horror and heroism of World War II in the words of the men who fought it the journalists who covered it and the civilians who were caught in its fury Miller gives us an up close deeply personal view of a war that was more savagely fought and whose outcome was in greater doubt than readers might imagine This is the war that Americans at the home front would have read about had they had access to the previously censored testimony of the soldiers on which Miller builds his gripping narrative Miller covers the entire war on land at sea and in the air and provides new coverage of the brutal island fighting in the Pacific the bomber war over Europe the liberation of the death camps and the contributions of African Americans and other minorities He concludes with a suspenseful never before told story of the atomic bombing of Nagasaki based on interviews with the men who flew the mission that ended the war The War Geoffrey C. Ward, Ken Burns, 2007-09-11 The vivid voices that speak from these pages are not those of historians or scholars They are the voices of ordinary men and women who experienced and helped to win the most devastating war in history in which between 50 and 60 million lives were lost Focusing on the citizens of four towns Luverne Minnesota Sacramento California Waterbury Connecticut Mobile Alabama The War follows more than forty people from 1941 to 1945 Woven largely from their memories the compelling unflinching narrative unfolds month by bloody month with the outcome always in doubt All the iconic events are here from Pearl Harbor to the liberation of the concentration camps but we also move among prisoners of war and Japanese American internees defense workers and schoolchildren and families who struggled simply to stay together while their men were shipped off to Europe the Pacific and North Africa Enriched by maps and hundreds of photographs including many never published before this is an intimate profoundly affecting chronicle of the war that shaped our world Sport and the Home Front Matthew Taylor, 2020-05-31 Sport and the Home Front contributes in significant and original ways to our understanding of the social and cultural history of the Second World War It explores the complex and contested treatment of sport in government policy media representations and the everyday lives of wartime citizens Acknowledged as a core component of British culture sport was also frequently criticised marginalised and downplayed existing in a constant state of tension between notions of normality and exceptionality routine and disruption the everyday and the extraordinary The author argues that sport played an important yet hitherto neglected role in maintaining the morale of the British people and providing a reassuring sense of familiarity at a time of mass anxiety and threat Through the conflict sport became increasingly regarded as characteristic of Britishness a symbol of the ordinary everyday lives in defence of which the war was being fought Utilised to support the welfare of war workers the entertainment of service personnel at home and abroad and the character formation of schoolchildren and young citizens sport permeated wartime culture contributing to new ways in which the British imagined the past present and future Using a wide range of personal and public records from diary writing and club minute books to government archives this book breaks new ground in both the history of the British home front and the history of sport The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp,1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level WOrld War II Goes to the Movies & Television Guide Terry Rowan,2012-03-07 A complete film guide to all of your films and television shows that pertain to WWII Included are every WWII film produced throughout the world Historical and informative Stories behind the Hollywood Canteen USO shows War Bond drives those who served or were classified as 4F during the war Many interested stories
