The War Hotel Psychological Dynamics In Violent Conflict:

The War Hotel Arlene Audergon, 2004-12-10 Human Nature is the fuel of violent conflict The War Hotel looks at how we get aroused and how we get silenced into violent conflict We are pulled apart in the name of justice and loyalty Past trauma is triggered into a replay Out of love and longing to step beyond the ordinary world we sacrifice ourselves and others Dehumanizing the enemy disinformation torture stirring fear in order to crack down these terror tactics too are based in psychology The manipulation of psychological dynamics to create violent conflict is distressing But if our emotions and behaviour are the fuel then our awareness can impact world events There is something truly hopeful here Awareness makes a difference Examples draw particularly from the author's work in the Balkans Other examples include Nazi Germany Rwanda the Israeli Palestinian conflict Communism and its fall in Europe South Africa the treatment of Native Americans and African Americans in the USA Vietnam and the war on terror

Understanding Conflict and Conflict Analysis Ho-Won Jeong, 2008-04-08 effectively fills a long standing void and will no doubt be hailed as a much needed new addition to the literature This text very much exemplifies the strength of Ho Won Jeong as a theorist and one of the more prolific writers in the larger peace and conflict studies field the final three chapters on De escalation Dynamics which includes a brief section on third party intervention on Conciliation Strategies and especially the one on Ending Conflict which provides a range of outcomes beyond the usual focus on third party intervention read mediation epitomizes the value of this new text Journal of Peace Research an awesome tour d horizon of modern war violence and confrontation within and between nations Illustrating via just about every conflict in every corner of the world the author invokes an endless array of insights and interpretations ranging from the micro to the macro beautifully written in a seamless sequence of closely linked and discursive essays Professor J David Singer University of Michigan Ho Won Jeong has written an illuminating analysis of the dynamics of conflict He lays out the tools we have to analyze conflict in a literate and comprehensive way A valuable book for anyone interested in a more comprehensive understanding of conflict its sources and its deescalation and termination Janice Gross Stein Belzberg Professor of Conflict Management Director Munk Centre for International Studies University of Toronto Jeong has successfully combined behavioral and structural analysis of the dynamics of social conflict This volume covers the multiple dimensions escalation entrapment de escalation termination and resolution both of violent and non violent confrontation between adversaries as well as the utility and limitations of external intervention For students of the social sciences it should serve as an excellent introduction to the complex realities of social conflict Milton Esman John S Knight Professor of International Studies Emeritus Cornell University By examining the dynamic forces which shape and re shape major conflicts this timely book provides students with the knowledge base needed to successfully study conflict sources processes and transformations Broad in focus it addresses the multiple social political and psychological features central to understanding conflict situations and behaviour A range of both recent and historical examples including the Arab Israeli

Armenophobia in Azerbaijan Anzhela Elibegova, Armine Adibekian, 2021-06-28 The idea of this book came after the presentation of Azeri hild project which represented a systematized compilation of works by Azerbaijani authors intended for children audiences along with a series of examples of works created by children themselves which gave a clear demonstration of the gap between the real situation in the Azerbaijani society about anything relating to Armenia and the declared tolerance for diversity of cultures and religions Naturally enough we tend to label this hatred as armenophobia often without full awareness of the pivotal role it plays in shaping the ethnic identity of Azerbaijanis such hatred channeled against all that pertains to Armenia stands as the nemesis of their psychological model and fuels the juxtaposition of us vs them which is fraught with repercussions for Azerbaijanis themselves The large archive compiled by the authors of this book serves as a thesaurus for an analysis of ongoing processes in the Azerbaijani society and allows building a temporal perspective on three levels by covering the past history current situation and expected ramifications of the armenophobic policy pursued at the state level in Azerbaijan EBOOK: The Politics of Psychotherapy: New Perspectives Nick

Totton, 2006-03-16 This unique collection by leading authors explores the links between therapy and the political world and their contribution to each other Topics covered include Psychotherapy in the political sphere including the roots of conflict social trauma and ecopsychology Political dimensions of psychotherapy practice such as discrimination power sexuality and postcolonial issues Psychotherapy the state and institutions including the law and ethics and psychotherapy in healthcare Working at the interface examples of therapy in political action from Croatia the USA the UK and Israel Palestine How to place political issues in therapy is highly controversial for example whether political themes should be interpreted psychologically in the consulting room or respected as valid in their own right similar issues arise for the role of therapeutic insights in political reality This book provides a map through these complex and demanding areas for therapists and counsellors in training as well as for experienced practitioners or other interested readers Contributors Lane Arye Arlene Audergon Emanuel Berman Sandra Bloom Jocelyn Chaplin Petruska Clarkson Chess Denman Dawn Freshwater Kate Gentile John Lees Renos Papadopoulos Hilary Prentice Mary Jayne Rust Judy Ryde Andrew Samuels Nick Totton Trauma and Transformation in African Literature J. Roger Kurtz, 2020-10-04 This book fills a gap in the field of contemporary trauma studies by interrogating the relevance of trauma for African literatures Kurtz argues that a thoughtful application of trauma theory in relation to African literatures is in fact a productive exercise and furthermore that the benefits of this exercise include not only what it can do for African literature but also what it can do for trauma studies He makes the case for understanding trauma healing within the larger project of peacebuilding with an emphasis on the transformative potential of what he terms the African moral imagination as embodied in the creative work of its writers. He offers readings of selected works by Chinua Achebe, Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Chimamanda Adichie and Nuruddin Farah as case studies for how African literature can influence our understanding of trauma and trauma healing. This will be a valuable volume for those with interests in current trends and developments in trauma studies, African literary studies, postcolonial studies and memory studies.

Handbook for Pandemic and Mass-Casualty Planning and Response Boris Hreckovski, 2012-12-15. The Handbook for Pandemic and Mass Casualty Planning and Response offers the disaster medicine professional community the information and tools to better prepare individually and collaboratively to mitigate mortality and morbidity when catastrophe occurs. It captures the lectures and teachings of an extraordinary 12-day NATO Advanced Study Institute held in Croatia in late 2011. Applying lessons learned and sharing best practices in addressing pandemics and catastrophic health events. The results of this event held under the auspices of the NATO Science for Peace and Security Programme are presented in three sections: The Context of Catastrophic Health Planning, Principles of Response to Catastrophes with Mass Casualties and Communication and Information Sharing. The handbook presents rigorous standardized cross-disciplinary training such as Medical Response to Major Incidents, the need to guide medical and humanitarian efforts by ethical principles, the importance of risk communication and trustworthy information, treatment guidelines along with medical and surgical practices for amputation, burns and blast injuries, triage guidelines and treatment algorithms, principles of mass casualty planning and the need to identify and correctly position in advance the networks and collaborative structures that must work together and share capabilities. Drawing on experts from Croatia, Slovenia, Ukraine, the United Kingdom, the Russian Federation, Italy, Spain, Mexico and the United States and especially on Croatia's experience handling mass casualties during its Homeland War in the 1990s, this handbook combines research and real-world examples to assist the disaster response community in preparing for mass casualty incidents.
