This valuable resource offers three versions of this centuries-old prayer to aid parishes and individuals alike as they walk Christ's way during Lent. Each version of the stations is included in a leader's book for use with an assembly; each is also available in its own small participant's booklet that can be used both for communal celebration and private devotion. Walking the Way of the Cross Stephen Cottrell, Paula Gooder, Philip North, 2019-10-30. Found in Common Worship Times and Seasons. The Way of the Cross is a series of scripture-based devotions for personal or group use in Lent and Holy Week. Similar in intent to the traditional Stations of the Cross, it focuses wholly on the biblical narrative of the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus. This seasonal companion provides the sequence of fifteen meditations, appears in full including opening and concluding prayers. Each is accompanied by three short reflections from different perspectives by three of today's very best spiritual writers. Paula Gooder offers reflections on the scriptural narratives. Stephen Cottrell considers the story from the perspective of personal discipleship. Philip North explores the story's challenge to mission and witness. The Way of the Cross Clemens Schmidt, Various, 1978-07. Practically every phrase in THE WAY OF THE CROSS has been culled from Biblical and liturgical sources. Consequently, the reflections and prayers are dignified and substantial. Wherever this form has been introduced, it has received the most hearty approval. The Stations are interspersed with stanzas from the Stabat Mater set to the traditional melody. Large and clear type makes the booklet eminently suitable for congregational use. The words of the Benediction chants are added. The Way of the Cross Saint Alphonsus De Liguori, 2012-10-20.
