The Weave Of My Life A Dalit Womans Memoirs:

The Weave of My Life Urmilā Pavāra,2009 That is why there has always been a tendency in our people to shrink within ourselves like a tortoise and proceed at a snail s pace Pawar eventually left Konkan for Mumbai where she fought for Dalit rights and became a major figure in the Dalit literary movement Though she writes in Marathi she has found fame in all of India The Weave of My Life Urmila Pawar,2009-07-15 My mother used to weave aaydans the Marathi generic term for all things made from bamboo I find that her act of weaving and my act of writing are organically linked The weave is similar It is the weave of pain suffering and agony that links us Activist and award winning writer Urmila Pawar recounts three generations of Dalit women who struggled to overcome the burden of their caste Dalits or untouchables make up India s poorest class Forbidden from performing anything but the most undesirable and unsanitary duties for years Dalits were believed to be racially inferior and polluted by nature and were therefore forced to live in isolated communities Pawar grew up on the rugged Konkan coast near Mumbai where the Mahar Dalits were housed in the center of the village so the upper castes could summon them at any time As Pawar writes the community grew up with a sense of perpetual insecurity fearing that they could be attacked from all four sides in times of conflict That is why there has always been a tendency in our people to shrink within ourselves like a tortoise and proceed at a snail s pace Pawar eventually left Konkan for Mumbai where she fought for Dalit rights and became a major figure in the Dalit literary movement Though she writes in Marathi she has found fame in all of India In this frank and intimate memoir Pawar not only shares her tireless effort to surmount hideous personal tragedy but also conveys the excitement of an awakening consciousness during a time of profound political and social change

Autosociobiography Johanna Bundschuh-van Duikeren,Marie Jacquier,Peter Löffelbein,2025-02-27 Autosociobiography a term coined by nobel prize winner Annie Ernaux is recognized as a productive literary phenomenon at the intersection of literary representation social analysis and political commentary The contributors to this volume trace the global entanglements of autosociobiographical texts especially the historical social and transcultural dynamics they discuss represent and perform They critically engage with the question of how to expand the scope of autosociobiography beyond its current corpus and class narratives to include other forms of social exclusion and stratification A History of Prejudice Gyanendra Pandey,2013-03-25 This is a book about prejudice and democracy and the prejudice of democracy In comparing the historical struggles of two geographically disparate populations Indian Dalits once known as Untouchables and African Americans Gyanendra Pandey the leading subaltern historian examines the multiple dimensions of prejudice in two of the world s leading democracies The juxtaposition of two very different locations and histories and within each of them of varying public and private narratives of struggle allows for an uncommon analysis of the limits of citizenship in modern societies and states Pandey with his characteristic delicacy probes the histories of his protagonists to uncover a shadowy world where intolerance and discrimination are part of both public and private lives This unusual and sobering book is revelatory in its exploration of the contradictory history of promise and denial that is common to the official narratives of nations such as India and the United States and the ideologies of many opposition movements Subaltern Perspectives in Indian Context Dipak Giri,2021-02-03 Concealing Caste Kusuma Satyanarayanan,Joel Lee,2023-01-29 The caste system is supposed to be inescapable you cannot change the caste into which you are born But are there ways to elude the system Concealing Caste tells the stories of women and men in India who though born into communities stigmatized as untouchable are perceived by others as high caste Like the literature on racial passing in the American context the short stories and autobiographical essays in this volume reveal the inner workings of a vicious social order illuminating the contradictions of caste hierarchy through the experience of those who clandestinely transgress its boundaries Concealing Caste is the first collection of Dalit writings focused on this public secret Bringing together Dalit literature from Marathi Telugu Hindi Bengali Tamil English and Malayalam including stories and essays never before translated this landmark anthology illustrates the agonizing choices and at times devastating consequences faced by Dalits who experiment with identity in a society shot through with the principle of birth based inequality Life Writing, Representation and Identity Mukul Chaturvedi,2024-03-27 This book focuses on varied forms of self referential storytelling or life writing and its emergence as a democratic and inclusive genre both globally and in India and its intersections with history fiction memory truth and identity The book examines the practice of life writing and its scope for accommodating diverse voices distinct identities collaborations and non hierarchical connections as it gives voice to oral silenced and marginalized communities It explores forms like auto biographical fiction digital storytelling graphic memoirs and testimonies of migration and exile among others The eclectic collection of essays in this volume draws attention towards the transformative possibilities of life writing as it engages with issues of resistance recuperation re inscribing individual and collective memories histories and promotes an understanding of multicultural others Focusing on the multiple ways in which the production circulation and consumption of life writing has helped to reimagine and redefine individual and collective identities in different cultural and geopolitical contexts the collection breaks new ground by initiating a cross cultural perspective in life writing studies The book aims to encourage critical engagement with a vastly growing body of literature that has seen a publishing and translation boom in contemporary times both globally and in India With life writing emerging as a robust area of research this edited collection provides a much needed impetus to critically engage with issues of self representation memory and identity in recent times This volume will serve as a significant and rich resource for university students researchers and academics of literature comparative studies cultural studies history indigenous studies and digital and media studies Dalit Literatures in India Joshil K. Abraham,Judith Misrahi-Barak,2015-07-24 This book breaks new ground in the study of Dalit Literature including in its corpus a range of genres such as novels autobiographies pamphlets poetry short stories as well as graphic novels With contributions from major scholars in the field it critically examines Dalit literary theory and initiates a dialogue between Dalit writing and

Western literary theory All the Rage Virginia Nicholson, 2024-08-06 A panoramic social history that chronicles the quest for beauty in all its contradictions and how it affects the female body Who decides what is fashionable What clothes we wear what hairstyles we create what colour lipstick we adore what body shape is all the rage The story of female adornment from 1860 1960 is intriguingly unbuttoned in this glorious social history Virginia Nicholson has long been fascinated by the way we women present ourselves or are encouraged to present ourselves to the world Women have been fat or slim hyperthyroid or splenetic sallow or pink cheeked slouched or erect according to the prevalent notions of beauty Cecil Beaton The Glass of Fashion 1954 In this book we learn about rational dress suffragettes hats the Marcel wave the Gibson Girls corsets and the banana skirt At the centre of this story is the female body in all its diversity fat thin short tall brown white black pink smooth hairy wrinkly youthful crooked or symmetrical and relevant as ever in this context the vexed issues of body image and bodily autonomy We may even find ourselves wondering whose body is it In the hundred years this book charts the western world saw the rapid introduction of new technologies like photography film and eventually TV which for better and worse thrust women and female imagery out of the private and into the public gaze Dalit Text Judith Misrahi-Barak, K. Satyanarayana, Nicole Thiara, 2019-06-18 This book companion to the much acclaimed Dalit Literatures in India examines questions of aesthetics and literary representation in a wide range of Dalit literary texts It looks at how Dalit literature born from the struggle against social and political injustice invokes the rich and complex legacy of oral folk and performative traditions of marginalised voices The essays and interviews systematically explore a range of literary forms from autobiographies memoirs and other testimonial narratives to poems novels or short stories foregrounding the diversity of Dalit creation Showcasing the interplay between the aesthetic and political for a genre of writing that has change as its goal the volume aims to make Dalit writing more accessible to a wider public for the Dalit voices to be heard and understood The volume also shows how the genre has revolutionised the concept of what literature is supposed to mean and define Effervescent first person accounts socially militant activism and sharp critiques of a little explored literary terrain make this essential reading for scholars and researchers of social exclusion and discrimination studies literature especially comparative literature translation studies politics human rights and culture studies
