The Phoenix Cynthia Harrod-Eagles, 2013-09-26 It is 1931 and the world is still reeling from the aftermath of the Wall Street Crash Polly Morland has returned to Morland Place saving it from financial ruin Her plans to change things are met with resistance however and she must prove her mettle in a man's world Jack war hero and family man knows that he must make a change for the sake of those he holds dear so when an opportunity arises that would take him back to York he seizes it with both hands In London Robert is bored with his office job and seeks something grander Fatherless and dealing with the repercussions of his family's bankruptcy he must make his own way now that he has been left to the mercy of the world His sister Charlotte also frustrated with her life and sure that she will never receive an offer of marriage longs for something different as well As the years roll by the threat of another war hangs in the air and when King Edward VIII takes to the throne things seem to be on the brink of change once more But like a phoenix rising up from the ashes the Morlands prove yet again that they will emerge from whatever they must face stronger than ever before
