Hannay,Aeterna Press,2013-03-07 EVERY kind of effort after good has found sympathy and help in Christianity Nothing is more wonderful and nothing more suggestive of His divinity than the way in which the words and example of the Master have been found adaptable to the ideals which have possessed the souls of men in different ages and under various circumstances There was a time when men were impelled to search for and express truth the eternal truth of the nature and property of the Deity Himself At that time the life of Christ presented itself primarily as a revelation He set forth under the conditions of time and space the mysterious God whose seat is amid clouds and darkness and yet who baffles human inquiry chiefly by the garment of impenetrable light in which He has decked Himself In another age the religious spirit took a lower flight and allowed its activities to be dominated by a political conception Whole generations spent themselves in the effort to realize upon earth a veritable kingdom of God To these men Christ appeared as a monarch whose will it was their ambition to realize perfectly Aeterna Press
