The Verlinden Way Volume II:

The Verlinden Way. Military Models and Dioramas, Vol II. ,1983 MASTER MODELER SERIES VOL 2 , The Invention of the White Race, Volume 2 Theodore W. Allen,2012-11-20 On the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in 1963 Martin Luther King outlined a dream of an America where people would not be judged by the color of their skin That dream has yet to be realized but some three centuries ago it was a reality Back then neither social practice nor law recognized any special privileges in connection with being white But by the early decades of the eighteenth century that had all changed Racial oppression became the norm in the plantation colonies and African Americans suffered under its yoke for more than two hundred years In Volume II of The Invention of the White Race Theodore Allen explores the transformation that turned African bond laborers into slaves and segregated them from their fellow proletarians of European origin In response to labor unrest where solidarities were not determined by skin color the plantation bourgeoisie sought to construct a buffer of poor whites whose new racial identity would protect them from the enslavement visited upon African Americans This was the invention of the white race an act of cruel ingenuity that haunts America to this day Allen s acclaimed study has become indispensable in debates on the origins of racial oppression in America In this updated edition scholar Jeffrey B Perry provides a new introduction a select bibliography and a study guide The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 2, AD 500-AD 1420 Craig Perry,David Eltis,Stanley L. Engerman,David Richardson,2021-08-12 Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people

Women Medievalists and the Academy, Volume 2 Jane Chance,2018-05-22 Long overlooked in standard reference works pioneering women medievalists finally receive their due in Women Medievalists and the Academy This comprehensive edited volume brings to life a diverse collection of inspiring figures through memoirs biographical essays and interviews Covering many different nationalities and academic disciplines including literature philology history archaeology art history theology or religious studies and philosophy each essay delves into one woman s life intellectual contributions and efforts to succeed in a male dominated field Together these extraordinary personal histories constitute a new standard reference that speaks to a growing interest in women s roles in the development of scholarship and the academy The collection begins in the eighteenth century with Elizabeth Elstob and continues to the present and includes among more than seventy profiles such important figures as Anna Jameson Lina Eckenstein Georgiana Goddard King Eileen Power Dorothy L Sayers Dorothy Whitelock Susan Mosher Stuard Marcia Colish and Caroline Walker Bynum among others

Design Rules, Volume 2

Carliss Y. Baldwin, 2024-12-17 How the innate physical properties of different technologies influence the strategy and structure of the organizations implementing the technologies the sequel to Design Rules The Power of Modularity In Design Rules volume 2 Carliss Baldwin offers a comprehensive view of the digital economy by putting forth an original theory that explains how technology shapes organizations in a market economy The theory claims that complementarities arising from the physical nature of technologies can be arrayed on a spectrum ranging from strong to very weak Two basic types of technologies in turn exhibit different degrees of complementarity between their internal components Flow production technologies which are found in steel mills and auto factories specify a series of steps each of which is essential to the final product In contrast platform technologies which are characteristic of computer hardware software and networks are modular systems designed to provide options Baldwin then investigates the dynamics of strategy for firms in platform ecosystems Such firms create value by solving technical bottlenecks technical barriers to performance that arise in different parts of the system as it evolves They capture value by controlling and defending strategic bottlenecks components that are 1 essential to the functioning of some part of the system 2 unique and 3 controlled by a profit seeking enterprise Strategic bottlenecks can be acquired by solving technical bottlenecks They can be destroyed via tactics such as substitution reverse engineering bypassing the bottleneck and enveloping a smaller bottleneck within a larger one Strategy in platform ecosystems can thus be viewed as the effective management of technical and strategic bottlenecks within a modular technical system

Multilingualism and Applied Comparative Linguistics (Volume II) Frank Boers, Jeroen Darquennes, Koen Kerremans, 2009-10-02 In February 2006 the first international conference on Multilingualism and Applied Comparative Linguistics MACL was held in Brussels Belgium The aim of the MACL conference was to bring together scholars from various branches of applied linguistics with a shared interest in cross linguistic and cross cultural communication The conference thus fostered an exchange of knowledge and expertise among researchers from various disciplines including educational linguistics cultural linguistics terminography translation studies and studies of specialised languages The present book is the second of two volumes containing a selection from the approximately 120 papers that were presented at that three day event The book comprises five chapters reflecting different research perspectives on cross linguistic and cross cultural communication The first chapter covers research articles on metaphors and planned languages The second chapter comprises articles dealing with language attitudes language proficiency and language practices in cross linguistic and cross cultural communicative contexts Chapter three features articles in the field of discourse analysis research In the fourth chapter research is presented that pertains to terminology and specialised languages Finally chapter five deals with translation studies AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL LAW CASES Fourth Series 2009 VOLUME 2 Oceana Editorial Board, 2010-12-24 AILC is an annual case law reporter that provides the full text of U S court opinions involving international law issues The courts covered include all U S federal district courts federal appellate courts and the U S Supreme Court as well as some state courts the U S Court of Claims the U S Court of International Trade and the U S Tax Court The series seeks to provide not every single case in which a court refers to international law but rather all cases that analyze at least one international law issue in depth The list of subjects addressed by these volumes is vast and changes from year to year with the inclusion and prominence of most topics turning on their prevalence in a given year s jurisprudence Some consistently prominent topics are personal jurisdiction over foreign defendants deportation procedure and double taxation Over the last three editions 2006 2007 and 2008 many topics have developed rapidly and constitute a correspondingly larger portion of the volumes particularly Terrorism the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act Forum Non Conveniens and an entirely new added topic the National Security Exception to deportation eligibility The 2008 edition of AILC also features expanded sections on family law and on the detention of terrorist suspects The U S war on terror and the crisis at Guantanamo have made that last topic a significant and dynamic component of AILC Each edition of AILC also comes framed with two practical resources for students and scholars The first is an introductory editor s note that both reviews international law s major developments for the given year and explains to readers how to use the volumes The second is a subject index to allow for targeted research Volume Two of AILC consists of cases concerning territories trusteeships boundaries and navigable waters covering marine torts and crimes and death on the high seas by wrongful act Also covered are procedural aspects including in personam jurisdiction extraterritoriality and forum selection clauses In Atlantic Sounding Co Inc v Edgar L Townsend the issue was whether an injured seaman may recover punitive damages for his employer s willful failure to pay maintenance and cure The court ruled that punitive damages were available as a matter of general maritime law The issue in Jose Marcial Reyes Fuentes et al v Shannon Produce Farm Inc et al was whether the Fair Labor Standards Act s FLSA provision provides a cause of action to foreign workers located abroad who are denied re hire in retaliation for exercising their rights under the FLSA The court ruled that neither the FLSA nor general extraterritoriality principles stand in the way of the plaintiffs retaliation claim

Biotechnologies of Crop Improvement, Volume 2 Satbir Singh Gosal, Shabir Hussain Wani, 2018-07-09 During the past 15 years cellular and molecular approaches have emerged as valuable adjuncts to supplement and complement conventional breeding methods for a wide variety of crop plants Biotechnology increasingly plays a role in the creation conservation characterization and utilization of genetic variability for germplasm enhancement For instance anther microspore culture somaclonal variation embryo culture and somatic hybridization are being exploited for obtaining incremental improvement in the existing cultivars In addition genes that confer insect and disease resistance abiotic stress tolerance herbicide tolerance and quality traits have been isolated and re introduced into otherwise sensitive or susceptible species by a variety of transgenic techniques Together these transformative methodologies grant access to a greater repertoire of genetic diversity as the genes may come from viruses bacteria fungi insects animals human beings unrelated plants or even be artificially derived Remarkable achievements have been made in the production characterization field evaluation and commercialization of transgenic crop varieties worldwide Likewise significant advances have been made towards increasing crop yields improving nutritional quality enabling crops to be raised under adverse conditions and developing resistance to pests and diseases for sustaining global food and nutritional security The overarching purpose of this 3 volume work is to summarize the history of crop improvement from a technological perspective but to do so with a forward outlook on further advancement and adaptability to a changing world Our carefully chosen case studies of important plant crops intend to serve a diverse spectrum of audience looking for the right tools to tackle complicated local and global issues
