Air War Over East Yorkshire in World War II Paul Bright, 2005 In most accounts of the air war over Britain in summer 1940 the events over East Yorkshire are mentioned only in passing yet it was there on August 20th that the first enemy aircraft fell to the guns of a Polish fighter squadron in the RAF less than a mile from where these words are being written It was also where the north east town as Hull was identified in the news bulletins of the day suffered its prolonged agony under the bombs of the Luftwaffe Indeed the very last British civilians to die as a direct result of Luftwaffe bombs in World War II were killed in Hull on March 17th 1945 As the home of much of the RAF s night bombing force East Yorkshire was also frequently the scene of Luftwaffe night intruder raids This book based on years of in depth research into primary sources personal accounts and experiences reveals many new facts and gives long overdue recognition to the events and people who fought lived and all too often died in East Yorkshire during 1939 1945
