The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave Venetria K. Patton, 2013-06-20 The Grasp That Reaches beyond the Grave investigates the treatment of the ancestor figure in Toni Cade Bambara's The Salt Eaters Paule Marshall's Praisesong for the Widow Phyllis Alesia Perry's Stigmata and A Sunday in June Toni Morrison's Beloved Tananarive Due's The Between and Julie Dash's film Daughters of the Dust in order to understand how they draw on African cosmology and the interrelationship of ancestors elders and children to promote healing within the African American community Venetria K Patton suggests that the experience of slavery with its concomitant view of black women as natively dead has impacted African American women writers emphasis on elders and ancestors as they seek means to counteract notions of black women as somehow disconnected from the progeny of their wombs This misperception is in part addressed via a rich kinship system which includes the living and the dead Patton notes an uncanny connection between depictions of elder ancestor and child figures in these texts and Kongo cosmology These references suggest that these works are examples of Africanisms or African retentions which continue to impact African American culture

She is Everywhere! Lucia Chiavola Birnbaum, 2005 She Is Everywhere An Anthology of Writing in Womanist Feminist Spirituality Perhaps the first womanist feminist anthology which includes women's voices from many cultural and spiritual traditions across the globe from past to present This book will be enormously useful and stimulating to women's studies classes and the emerging vibrant study of women's spirituality By venerating Her I am able to salute the divinity in all women and myself Luisah Teish We are at the brink of new age which will be defined by new concepts in science religion and the reclamation of the values of the Dark Mother Necia Harkless In my micro geography she is everywhere in a sweat lodge in Indian Canyon or in the Guadalupe chapel in San Juan Bautista in a field of blue corn in Aromas protected with corn dollies or in the Rodriguez Street Laundry in Watsonville Jennifer Colby In bringing memories of Her to the surface I feel reborn reconnected to the Earth reunited with my Great Mother Sandy Miranda Traveling to lands and sacred sites where evidence of the Goddess is irrefutable gives me a new spark and added hope Sardinia herself is the Great Mother Leslene della Madre The more women's voices I heard the more I came to see the Sacred Feminine as immanent the more I saw women who seemed to be filled with joy even in the midst of adverse circumstances Deborah Grenn

The Sounds of Love and Grace Jimi Calhoun, 2020-02-14 The book you are holding results from years of research carried out as I traveled the world as a rock musician followed by living abroad as a minister Did you know that all the music ever created in the West has its origin in just twelve sounds From rock to bluegrass to gospel to the intricate arrangements of classical it all came from only twelve notes That happened because musicians found an infinite number of tonal combinations to use within the twelve note scale What today's social ills have in common with music is that they exist because of a failure on our part to have a similar vision for the Ten Commandments That vision is one of limitless applications for them This book approaches the Ten Commandments in the same manner that musicians approach the twelve note scale with a desire to create something fresh building on what has come before This book uses the ten sounds to create a different melody to sing in the areas of racial injustice disability gender inequality and to bring healing to the wounds that linger on in some communities because of unjust activities engaged in by some of our forebearers

The Search for Wholeness and Diaspora Literacy in Contemporary African American Literature Silvia Castro-Borrego, 2011-05-25 This volume has as a cohesive argument the exploration of the different manifestations of the search for wholeness and spirituality in the writings of contemporary

African American women writers covering different literary genres such as fiction both novels and short stories drama and poetry Together with the issue of spirituality the African American search for wholeness is analyzed as a source of creativity and agency As expressed in the contemporary literature of black women writers starting in the 1980s the search for wholeness reflects a beauty realized through the healing of the spirit and the body and is a process that takes on dimensions of reconciling the past and the present the mythical and the real the spiritual and the physical all in the context of an emerging world view that welcomes synthesis and expects both synthesis and generative contradictions The book will be a valuable collection for scholars of African American literature comparative American Ethnic literature American literature and spirituality as well as women s studies In addition it will be an important text for both undergraduate and graduate students in those fields As Professor Johnnella Butler 2006 points out the African American search for wholeness is tightly linked to the search for freedom and agency Ever since the 19th century African American writers have given expression to an African American self which functions in Western civilization simultaneously as a colonized other and an assertive self Due to the continuous ordeal of the African Diaspora this self is caught in between the binaries proposed by the material and the spiritual world seeking a balance where the person can become whole The search for wholeness feeds from cultural roots that imply the presence of ancestral spiritualism rememory and double consciousness Contemporary black women writers reflect the metaphor of building spiritual bridges seeking the possibilities of building a bridge to the archetypal African past that is carried in their memories as a presence that offers sustenance via spiritual reconnection Their works seek to bridge the gap between the myths and traditions of the past and contemporary African American culture The texts included in this collection are examples of writing as an exercise of what V v Clark calls Diaspora literacy The texts written by contemporary African American women writers explicitly show how to recognize and read the cultural signs left scattered along the road of progress In this way material acquisition is achieved along with cultural dispossession becoming a metaphor for the history of the African in America The powerful message is that one should not exclude the other
