Alexander Rutherford, 2019-09-30 If the Word of God is our anchor in the chaos of this world if it is our assurance that we can know the world and God its creator we need confidence that we can understand this Word Reading and applying the Bible is essential to every facet of Christian life and ministry yet our ability to do so is under attack from a myriad of directions In Postmodern philosophy the possibility of communication is dismissed let alone communication from God In Biblical studies the amount of knowledge required to come to firm conclusions concerning the meaning and application of the Bible grows every day However the Bible is not so pessimistic about its accessibility Instead it presents itself as a clear word sufficient to guide and encourage Christians in every area of life Beginning with the Bible's own claims to clarity and sufficiency The Gift of Reading Part 1 outlines the practice of reading the Bible in order to understand and apply it The Gift of Reading Part 2 will go further into the theory that lies beneath the methodology unpacked in Part 1

Reading John through Johannine Lenses Stan Harstine, 2022-02-04 Reading John through Johannine Lenses demonstrates that the model an interpreter chooses for examining the Gospel of John significantly impacts the resulting interpretation The Fourth Evangelist uses key words in the prologue in order to guide the reader toward key moments in the gospel Stan Harstine shows how four words life word receive and believe converge at transition points in John 5:12 and 17 Their close relationship is not random rather it guides the reader to recall what the Gospel has presented in the preceding section providing a road map for understanding the narrative By using interpretive models from both diachronic and synchronic methodologies Harstine's comparison of traditional historical methods with more recent narrative and rhetorical methods demonstrates the wide disparity of results from prior approaches thus accentuating the importance of reading the Fourth Gospel through the lenses it provides its readers
