Apocalypse of the Alien God Dylan M. Burns, 2014-02-19 In the second century Platonist and Judeo Christian thought were sufficiently friendly that a Greek philosopher could declare What is Plato but Moses speaking Greek Four hundred years later a Christian emperor had ended the public teaching of subversive Platonic thought When and how did this philosophical rupture occur Dylan M Burns argues that the fundamental break occurred in Rome ca 263 in the circle of the great mystic Plotinus author of the Enneads Groups of controversial Christian metaphysicians called Gnostics knowers frequented his seminars disputed his views and then disappeared from the history of philosophy until the 1945 discovery at Nag Hammadi Egypt of codices containing Gnostic literature including versions of the books circulated by Plotinus s Christian opponents Blending state of the art Greek metaphysics and ecstatic Jewish mysticism

these texts describe techniques for entering celestial realms participating in the angelic liturgy confronting the transcendent God and even becoming a divine being oneself They also describe the revelation of an alien God to his elect a race of foreigners under the protection of the patriarch Seth whose interventions will ultimately culminate in the end of the world Apocalypse of the Alien God proposes a radical interpretation of these long lost apocalypses placing them firmly in the context of Judeo Christian authorship rather than ascribing them to a pagan offshoot of Gnosticism According to Burns this Sethian literature emerged along the fault lines between Judaism and Christianity drew on traditions known to scholars from the Dead Sea Scrolls and Enochic texts and ultimately catalyzed the rivalry of Platonism with Christianity Plunging the reader into the culture wars and classrooms of the high Empire Apocalypse of the Alien God offers the most concrete social and historical description available of any group of Gnostic Christians as it explores the intersections of ancient Judaism Christianity Hellenism myth and philosophy

The World of Late Antiquity: CE 150-750 (New) (World of Art) Peter Brown, 2024-06-04 A remarkable study in social and cultural change that explains how and why the late antique world circa 150 750CE came to differ from classical civilization The first century CE was one of momentous events the end of the Roman Empire the rise of Christianity across Western Europe and the disappearance of Persia from the Near East An era in which the most deep rooted ancient institutions disappeared creating divergent legacies that are still present today Renowned historian Peter Brown examines these changes and the reactions to them to show that the late antiquity was an outstanding period of new beginnings with far reaching impacts The result is a lucid answer to a crucial question in world history how the exceptionally homogenous Mediterranean world of the first century CE became divided into the three mutually estranged societies of the Middle Ages Catholic Western Europe Byzantium and the Islamic world Brown s remarkable study in social and cultural transformation explains how and why the late antique world came to differ from the classical civilization of the Greeks and Romans Featuring a new preface and updated with color illustrations throughout The World of Late Antiquity demonstrates that we still have much to learn from this enduring and intriguing period of history

Bishops, Community and Authority in Late Roman Society Rebecca Devlin, 2025-10-01 When the bishop Hydatius found himself held hostage in Gallaecia a Roman province in the northwestern Iberian Peninsula by a band of Sueves in the year 460 he deployed his experience as an ambassador for his congregation and used his captivity as a tool for negotiating peace As this example shows bishops held considerable economic political and social power in the early Middle Ages The expansion of ecclesiastical influence was not however a simple consequence of the legalization of Christianity or a power vacuum that followed the withdrawal of imperial authority The transformation of the episcopate resulted instead from dynamic processes to which all status groups contributed and that are best understood through contextual and diachronic analysis This monograph focuses on the clerical community in Gallaecia and employs a case study and interdisciplinary approach incorporating written and material evidence to put bishops like Hydatius in their larger social and economic contexts to elucidate why the people living and working in their sees would imbue them with increasing authority and explain how their roles within their local communities expanded This book Analyses the accumulation of political power social capital and local influence by bishops approaching them as part of a larger social system understood as a whole that experienced transformative change across all of its layers Deploys all evidence written material etc without privileging one form over the other a priori to produce a deep reconstruction of the social and physical contexts micro historical landscapes in which bishops operated to explain their rise to prominence Turns the problem of Iberian early medieval written sources on its head i e the NW and clerical authors are overrepresented by engaging in a series of diachronic case studies to develop a rich understanding of episcopal influence in the NW as a point of departure for understanding broader developments in the late and post Roman periods

Broken Cities Martin Devecka, 2020-09-01 A comparative study of cities that fell into ruin through human involvement We have been taught to think of ruins as historical artifacts relegated to the past by a catastrophic event Instead Martin Devecka argues that we should see them as processes taking place over a long present In Broken Cities Devecka offers a wide ranging comparative study of ruination the process by which monuments architectural sites and urban centers decay into ruin over time Weaving together four case studies of classical Athens late antique Rome medieval Baghdad and sixteenth century Mexico City Devecka shows that ruination is a complex social process largely contingent on changing imperial control rather than the result of immediate or natural events Drawing on literature legal texts epigraphic evidence and the narratives embodied in monuments and painting Broken Cities is an expansive and nuanced study that holds great significance for the field of historiography

The History of the Library in Western Civilization K. Staikos, 2004 Vol 4 This fourth volume discusses the publishing procedure for secular and religious writings of late antiquity and the factors that led to the impoverishment of the monumental libraries in Rome New centers of learning grew up in the monasteries where great libraries containing educational and instructive books and representative works of Christian literature came into being Monastic libraries were founded throughout Europe including the regions with Celtic and Anglo Saxon populations those at Monte Cassino Bobbio St Gallen Fulda Cluny and elsewhere are dealt with extensively Mention is also made of the libraries founded in universities and of the new philosophy of forming school libraries as in Bologna and Paris Publisher s website The Beginnings of Islamic Law Lena Salaymeh,2016-11-14 This is a major and innovative contribution to our understanding of the historical unfolding of Islamic law Scrutinizing its historical contexts Salaymeh proposes that Islamic law is a continuous intermingling of innovation and tradition The book s interdisciplinary approach provides accessible explanations and translations of complex materials and ideas Trafficking with Demons Martha Rampton,2022-01-15 Trafficking with Demons explores how magic was perceived practiced and prohibited in western Europe during the first millennium CE Through the overlapping frameworks of religion ritual and gender Martha Rampton connects early Christian reckonings with pagan magic to later doctrines and dogmas Challenging established views on the role of women in ritual magic during this period Rampton provides a new narrative of the ways in which magic was embedded within the foundational assumptions of western European society informing how people understood the cosmos divinity and their own Christian faith As Rampton shows throughout the first Christian millennium magic was thought to play a natural role within the functioning of the universe and existed within a rational cosmos hierarchically arranged according to a great chain of being Trafficking with the demons of the lower air was the essence of magic Interactions with those demons occurred both in highly formalistic ritual settings and on a routine and casual basis Rampton tracks the competition between pagan magic and Christian belief from the first century CE when it was fiercest through the early Middle Ages as atavistic forms of magic mutated and found sanctuary in the daily habits of the converted peoples and new paganisms entered Europe with their own forms of magic By the year 1000 she concludes many forms of magic had been tamed and were by the reckoning of the elite essentially ineffective as were the women who practiced it and the rituals that attended it Women, Family, and Society in Medieval Europe David Herlihy,1995 A selection of Herlihy s essays compiled as a tribute to his influence His particular interest in the nature of the family and the role of women within that unit is amply reflected in this volume Articles include Did women have a renaissance The Florentine Merchant family in the Middle Ages Biology and History Suggestions for a Dialogue The Ascetic Imperative in Culture and Criticism Geoffrey Galt Harpham,2011-01-15 In this bold interdisciplinary work Geoffrey Galt Harpham argues that asceticism has played a major role in shaping Western ideas of the body writing ethics and aesthetics He suggests that we consider the ascetic as the cultural element in culture and presents a close analysis of works by Athanasius Augustine Matthias Gr newald Nietzsche Foucault and other thinkers as proof of the extent of asceticism s resources Harpham demonstrates the usefulness of his findings by deriving from asceticism a discourse of resistance a code of interpretation ultimately more generous and humane than those currently available to us Professing Classics Ward Briggs,Danuta Shanzer,2024-10-21 Thirteen original essays study the mobility of Classicists sensu latiore including philologists and archaeologists between the Anglophone and

Germanophone worlds between the mid 19th C and 2020 concentrating on the North Atlantic Triangle American classicists rushed across the seas for doctoral work in Germany the great Hellenist Gildersleeve the American circle around W Ifflin the historian of classical scholarship Gudeman The archaeologist Schliemann s dubious profiteering in America is exposed Two contemporary scholars describe how they moved to enrich their career horizons Ludwig Shanzer More however sadly were forced to seek asylum from 20th century Fascism and anti Semitism Bieler Brendel Fraenkel One Gudeman emigrated from America to Germany in the early Nazi period and later died in a labor camp The lasting prominence of one novelist Wallace and one critic with a dark past P schl whose influential works crossed the sea are also evaluated The volume includes work in academic sociology archival and epistolographical detective work in life writing transmission reception and the history of scholarship
