The Worlding Project Doing Cultural Studies In The Era Of Globalization:

The Worlding Project Christopher Leigh Connery, Rob Wilson, 2007-10-30 Globalization discourse now presumes that the world space is entirely at the mercy of market norms and forms promulgated by reactionary U S policies An academic but accessible set of studies this wide range of essays by noted scholars challenges this paradigm with diverse and strong arguments Taking on topics that range from the medieval Mediterranean to contemporary Jamaican music from Hong Kong martial arts cinema to Taiwanese politics writers such as David Palumbo Liu Meaghan Morris James Clifford and others use innovative cultural studies to challenge the globalization narrative with a new and trenchant tactic called worlding The book posits that world literature cultural studies and disciplinary practices must be worlded into expressions from disparate critical angles of vision multiple frameworks and field practices as yet emerging or unidentified This opens up a major rethinking of historical givens from Rob Wilson s reinvention of The White Surfer Dude to Sharon Kinoshita s Deprovincializing the Middle Ages Building on the work of cultural critics like Edward Said Gayatri Spivak and Kenneth Burke The Worlding Project is an important manifesto that aims to redefine the aesthetics and politics of postcolonial globalization with alternative forms and frames of global becoming

Worlding the Western Neil Campbell, 2022-09-13 Worlding the Western views the fiction of the Western United States as a focal point for a reexamination of the consequences of the exceptionalism and closed borders of the Trump Era At a time of bounded individualism new nativism climate emergency and migration crises author Neil Campbell argues that fiction offers opportunities to challenge the dark side of globalization He proposes worlding as a different and more open form of politics Diversity disparity and opposition are central to the dynamic frictional fiction considered in this book The American West provides a powerful test case in which these features are present and yet historically have often been masked or denied in the rush toward unanimity and nation building Worlding is therefore a positive critical concept through which to view the notion of a single world under pressure

Worlding Multiculturalisms Daniel P. S. Goh, 2014-11-20 Worlding multiculturalisms are practices that infuse our arbitrary cultural lives with new things from other cultures in poetic ways to enable us to dwell and be at home with the complexity of the world In the context of the crisis of multiculturalism in the West and the growing obsolescence of state based multiculturalism in the postcolonial world this book offers examples of new practices of worlding multiculturalisms that go beyond issues of immigration integration and identity Contrasting Western and Asian notions of multiculturalism this book does not focus on state issues but rather highlights manifestations of cultural exchange The chapters draw on cultural studies approaches to document instances of worlding multiculturalisms that bring Asian cultures into conflict dialogue and settlement with each other Instances include an Asian American return novel set in Penang the cultural productions and street performances of democracy marches in Malaysia the campaigns to reclaim public spaces and citizenship rights by migrant domestic workers in Hong Kong the imaginary vistas opened up by Japanese popular culture consumed throughout

Asia the localisations of casino complexes in Macau and a shopping mall in Seoul and an old municipal cemetery being defended from urban redevelopment in Singapore Rather than merely globalizing forms of political diversity these are instances with the potential to transform social relations and the very terms of cultural exchange Worlding Multiculturalisms offers a truly interdisciplinary examination of multiculturalism in action As such it will appeal to students and scholars of cultural studies Asian studies Asian culture and society cultural anthropology and sociology and political sociology

Pacific Literatures as World Literature Hsinya Huang, Chia-hua Yvonne Lin, 2023-05-04 Pacific Literatures as World Literature is a conjuration of trans Pacific poets and writers whose work enacts forces of becoming oceanic and suggests a different mode of understanding viewing and belonging to the world The Pacific past and present remains uneasily amenable to territorial demarcations of national or marine sovereignty At the same time as a planetary element necessary to sustaining life and well being the Pacific could become the means to envisioning ecological solidarity if compellingly framed in terms that elicit consent and inspire an imagination of co belonging and care The Pacific can signify a bioregional site of coalitional promise as much as a danger zone of antagonistic peril With ground breaking writings from authors based in North America Japan Taiwan Korea Hawaii and Guam and new modes of research including multispecies ethnography and practice ecopoetics and indigenous cosmopolitics authors explore the socio political significance of the Pacific and contribute to the development of a collective effort of comparative Pacific studies covering a refreshingly broad ethnographically grounded range of research themes This volume aims to decenter continental land poetics as such via long standing transnational Pacific ties re worlding Pacific literature as world literature International Relations Scholarship Around the World Arlene B. Tickner, Ole Wæver, 2009-06-24 It has become widely accepted that the discipline of International Relations IR is ironically not international at all IR scholars are part of a global discipline with a single shared object of study the world and yet theorizing gravitates around a number of concepts that have been conceived solely in the United States The purpose of this book is to re balance this western bias by examining the ways in which IR has evolved and is practiced around the world The fifteen case studies offer fresh insights into the political and socioeconomic environments that characterize diverse geocultural sites and the ways in which these traits inform and condition scholarly activity in International Relations By bringing together scholars living and working across the globe Tickner and Wæver provide the most comprehensive analysis of IR ever published It is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the history development and future of international relations Affective Critical Regionality Neil Campbell, 2016-08-17 Affective Critical Regionality offers a new approach to developing a sharper more nuanced understanding of the relations between place space memory and affect It builds on the author's extensive work on the American West where he developed the idea of expanded critical regionalism to underline the West as multiple dynamic and relational engaged in global local processes tensions between the rooted and the routed and increasingly as relevant to debates around the politics of precarity and vulnerability This book uses affective critical regionality to enable a re valuing of the local as a powerful means to appreciate the everyday and the over looked as vital elements within a more inclusive understanding of how we live Exploring a variety of cultural materials including fiction memoir theory poetry and film it demonstrates how this approach can deepen our understanding of and simultaneously provoke new relations with place Moving beyond the US context through its use of international theoretical voices and texts it will show how the concept is applicable to other cultural spheres

Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson,2025-02-14 From disappearing coral reefs and ocean acidification to floating great garbage patches the Pacific Ocean is an ever present reminder of the Anthropocene In Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson demonstrates that in the midst of the planetary crises the Pacific now faces it must be understood as interconnected to the other oceans Wilson frames this interconnection as Oceania reconceiving the world oceans as tied to sites of urban dwelling and life sustenance from Boston to Brisbane that are increasingly threatened by late capitalism Confronting these threats Wilson argues requires a project he theorizes as worlding a process of world making and world remaking across Oceania that would create new forms of belonging and connection at local regional and transnational levels Wilson shows how Oceania is not just a site of peril but one charged with emergent literary and social formations that can provide the basis for new solidarities futures and ecologies Imperialism, Reform and the Making of Englishness in Jane Eyre Sue Thomas,2008-04-30 This new study demonstrates the precision of Bront s historical setting of Jane Eyre Thomas addresses the historical worlding of Bront and her characters mapping relations of genre and gender across the novel s articulation of questions of imperial history and relations reform racialization and the making of Englishness

On the Sixties Edge-imaginary Madeline McDonald Lane,2010 World Writing Mary Gallagher,2008 Following an introductory chapter by Mary Gallagher which maps this conceptual terrain the contributors investigate how globalization inflects the necessary relationship between poetics culture ethics and politics

Literature and Oppositional Culture in Late Capitalism Johanna L. Isaacson,2011 Other-Worldly Mei Zhan,2009-11-09 Traditional Chinese medicine is often portrayed as an enduring system of therapeutic knowledge that has become globalized in recent decades In Other Worldly Mei Zhan argues that the discourses and practices called traditional Chinese medicine are made through rather than prior to translocal encounters and entanglements Zhan spent a decade following practitioners teachers and advocates of Chinese medicine through clinics hospitals schools and grassroots organizations in Shanghai and the San Francisco Bay Area Drawing on that ethnographic research she demonstrates that the everyday practice of Chinese medicine is about much more than writing herbal prescriptions and inserting acupuncture needles Traditional Chinese medicine is also made and remade through efforts to create a preventive medicine for the proletariat world reinvent it for cosmopolitan middle class aspirations produce clinical miracles translate knowledge and authority and negotiate marketing strategies and medical ethics Whether discussing the presentation of Chinese medicine at a health fair sponsored by a Silicon Valley corporation or how the inclusion of a traditional Chinese medicine clinic authenticates the California appeal of an upscale residential neighborhood in Shanghai Zhan emphasizes that unexpected encounters and interactions are not anomalies in the structure of Chinese medicine Instead they are constitutive of its irreducibly complex and open ended worlds Zhan proposes an ethnography of worlding as an analytic for engaging and illuminating emergent cultural processes such as those she describes Rather than taking cultural difference as the starting point for anthropological inquiries this analytic reveals how various terms of difference for example traditional Chinese and medicine are invented negotiated and deployed translocally Other Worldly is a theoretically innovative and ethnographically rich account of the worlding of Chinese medicine Itineraries for a Republic Yajun Mo,2011 Ariel ,2016 International Third World Studies Journal & Review ,2004 Asian Studies Newsletter ,2007 Asia as Method Kuan-Hsing Chen,2010-04-16 A leading proponent of knowledge exchanges within East Asia and of an international cultural studies insists that those on both sides of the imperial divide must assess the conduct motives and consequences of imperialism Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association,2007 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Globalization, Imperialism, Social Development Yi-Lee Wong,2008 There are two major aims for this book first to make a contribution to the academic debates and second to urge frontline INGO practitioners to reflect critically on their practices Referring to the practices of CEP in reforming the system of higher education in Belarus Ukraine and Moldova this book seeks to engage in two major debates one over the role of INGO in social development and two over the relationship between INGO and Imperialism In the discussion the author highlighted the elements that are usually overlooked in the existing literature namely contradiction and contingency Data is in the form of my first hand experience of working as a university lecturer teaching in several universities in Belarus Ukraine and Moldova and as a CEP visiting fellow actively involved in its activities The data poses challenges to the development logic of INGO and the logic of Imperialism this provides an interesting basis for a provocative discussion Since data also offers an interesting evaluation of CEP they reveal not only difficulties facing CEP in bringing changes to the former Soviet countries but also common problems of the system of higher education in this region
