Civilizations of the Silk Road H. K. Chang, 2023-06-02 This book describes the interactions between various civilizations and societies along the Silk Road between 500 BCE and 1500 CE the period from the first encounters of ancient Greek and Persian civilizations to the time when maritime exchanges between Europe and Asia exceeded those on land Starting with the genesis and features of different civilizations the book focuses on the history and exchange of different cultures along the Silk Road Zhang Qian s successful pioneering feats which inaugurated the opening stretch of the Silk Road the origins and dissemination of Zoroastrianism Buddhism Christianity Manichaeism Nestorian Christianity and Islam the westward spread of papermaking and printing and long distance exchanges of scripts and spoken language music architecture painting and sculpture It also outlines the historically significant migrations of various peoples from east to west such as the Xiongnu Yuezhi Han Qiang Hephthalites Turkic groups Uyghurs Mongols and Xibe The author has interwoven facts anecdotes and his own experiences of study throughout the book making it a fascinating history reader and cultural primer This book thus will be an essential read for students and scholars of Eurasian Studies and Chinese History and those who are interested in the history of the Silk Road in general Traditions & Encounters Jerry H. Bentley, Herbert F. Ziegler, 2006 On the basis of a superficial inspection Traditions Encounters might look similar to several other textbooks that survey the world's past Like other books for example Traditions Encounters examines the historical development of societies in Asia Europe Africa the Americas and Oceania Yet Traditions Encounters differs from other works in two particularly important ways First it relies on a pair of prominent themes to bring a global perspective to the study of world history it traces the historical development of individual societies in all world regions and it also focuses attention systematically on interactions between peoples of different societies Second it organizes the human past into seven eras that represent distinct and coherent periods of global historical development Preface Page xvi
