Hebrews: An Earth Bible Commentary Jeffrey S. Lamp, 2020-05-14 In this new ecological commentary on the letter to the Hebrews Jeffrey S Lamp makes use of approaches developed in the relatively new field of Ecological Hermeneutics to shed light upon the connection of Hebrews with Earth Hebrews is frequently characterized as portraying a dualistic cosmology that diminishes the material world muting the voice of Earth Conversely Lamp argues that though Hebrews cannot be construed as an ecological treatise the contours of the letter s presentation may be subverted by reading from an ecological perspective such that cues provided by the author of Hebrews serve as opportunities to hear Earth s voice in the letter Three movements corresponding to thematic interests of the author of Hebrews form the framework of this ecological reading the Son as the agent of creation the Son depicted as the Second Adam and the New Jerusalem as the eschatological dwelling place of God This ecological reading of Hebrews aims to shape its readers into those who fulfill the soteriological aims of God in and for the world

The Characterization of Jesus in the Book of Hebrews Brian Small, 2014-01-30 In The Characterization of Jesus in the Book of Hebrews Brian Small applies the tools of literary and rhetorical criticism to reconstruct the author of Hebrew s portrayal of Jesus character The author of Hebrews uses a variety of literary and rhetorical devices in order to develop his characterization of Jesus The portrait that emerges is that Jesus is a person of exemplary character who exhibits both divine and human character traits Some of the traits reveal Jesus greatness while others reveal his moral excellence Jesus exemplary character plays a prominent role in the author s argument and has profound implications for his audience Jesus character produces many benefits for his followers and his character entails certain obligations from his followers

Deciphering the Worlds of Hebrews Gabriella Gelardini, 2021-04-19 In the collection entitled Deciphering the Worlds of Hebrews Gabriella Gelardini gathers fifteen essays written in the last fifteen years twelve of which are in English and three in German Arranged in three parts the world of behind and in front of Hebrews's text her articles deal with such topics as structure and intertext sin and faith atonement and cult as well as space and resistance She reads Hebrews no longer as the enigmatic and homeless outsider within the New Testament corpus as the Melchizedekian being without genealogy rather she reads Hebrews as one whose origin has finally been rediscovered namely in Second Temple Judaism Christology,

Hermeneutics, and Hebrews Jon C. Laansma, Daniel J. Treier, 2012-03-01 This book discusses the history of the interpretation of the Letter to the Hebrews across the last two millennia Beginning with the Patristic period essays go on to examine the responses of Thomas Aquinas Martin Luther John Calvin as well as more recent figures such as Karl Barth and contemporary global interpreters The premise behind the work is to move study of Hebrews away from the perennial arguments about its authorship and provenance and to instead engage with it from a theological perspective focusing upon the text's reception history Consequently the issue of the Christological message in Hebrews is at the forefront and is considered both in terms of the interpreter's context and historical setting At the end of the book the investigations are summarised and responded to by leading scholars Harold Attridge Donald A. Hagner and Kathryn Greene-McCreight providing a fitting conclusion to a radical academic project Atonement and the Logic of Resurrection in the Epistle to the Hebrews David M. Moffitt, 2011-07-27 Scholars often explain Hebrews' relative silence regarding Jesus' resurrection by emphasizing the author's appeal to Yom Kippur's two key moments the sacrificial slaughter and the high priest's presentation of blood in the holy of holies in his distinctive portrayal of Jesus' death and heavenly exaltation The writer's depiction of Jesus as the high priest whose blood effected ultimate atonement appears to be modeled upon these two moments Such a typology discourages discrete reflection on Jesus' resurrection Drawing on contemporary studies of Jewish sacrifice which note that blood represents life not death parallels in Jewish apocalyptic literature and fresh exegetical insights this volume demonstrates that Jesus embodied resurrected life is crucial for the high priestly Christology and sacrificial soteriology developed in Hebrews Mark's Argumentative Jesus Caurie Beaver, 2018-05-22 The author claims that the gospel of Mark is a speech or sermon To prove this he shows how Mark used many of the elements of Aristotle's rhetoric Literary critics noticed these rhetorical features in Mark but remained with a literary critical model of that gospel instead of a rhetorical view that the evidence called for They continued to translate the first word of Mark arche as beginning to provide Mark's story of Jesus with a chronological beginning The author translates Mark's first word as guiding principle to provide Mark's persuasive speech or sermon with a logical starting point The State of New Testament Studies Scot McKnight, Nijay K. Gupta, 2019-11-05 This book surveys the current landscape of New Testament studies offering readers a concise guide to contemporary discussions Bringing together a diverse group of experts it covers research on the most important issues in New Testament studies including new discipline areas making it an ideal supplemental textbook for a variety of courses on the New Testament Michael Bird David Capes Greg Carey Lynn Cohick Dennis Edwards Michael Gorman and Abson Joseph are among the contributors New Testament Theology in Light of the Church's Mission Jon C. Laansma, Grant Osborne, Ray Van Neste, 2011-11-09 This book offers important new case studies in understanding the theology and praxis of mission in the New Testament and in reading the New Testament for mission Significant scholars from around the world explore aspects of the missional theology of the Gospels Acts Paul Hebrews and Revelation The essays are offered as a fitting tribute to I Howard Marshall one of the most outstanding evangelical New Testament scholars of his generation
