Families and Social Policy Linda Haas, Steven K. Wisensale, 2006-11-01 Empirical research that describes ways to best handle social problems concerning families Leading authorities studies show that from the effects of globalization many social and family problems and their solutions tend to be similar in nations world wide Families and Social Policy National and International Perspectives explores

Devolution in the UK Derek Birrell, Paul Carmichael, Deirdre Heenan, 2023-09-21 Covering the impact of austerity Brexit the Scottish Independence Referendum and the collapse of the Northern Ireland Executive this book discusses how wider national developments shape and are shaped by the process of devolution in Scotland Wales Northern Ireland and England assessing its impact on politics policy and public administration Drawing together extensive scholarship on devolution Devolution in the UK compares the similarities and differences between the different devolved nations and tackles key questions Where did devolution come from and what does its future look like What are the most effective devolution systems and what are their benefits Why does Wales have fewer devolved powers than Scotland and Northern Ireland What impact will Brexit have Why are national identities symbols languages flags and culture so important Spanning the introduction of devolution in 1988 to the present this is essential reading if you are studying devolution one of the country specific political systems or interested in UK politics as a whole Comparing Devolved Governance D. Birrell, 2012-03-29 Examines recent evidence of a growing symmetry in the operation of devolution in Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland This book makes one of the first systematic and detailed comparisons of the operation of the devolved institutions and machinery of governance It uses a comparative approach to explore the key workings of government The Time of Money Lisa Adkins, 2018-09-25 Speculation is often associated with financial practices but The Time of Money makes the case that it not be restricted to the financial sphere It argues that the expansion of finance has created a distinctive social world one that demands a speculative stance toward life in general Replacing a logic of extraction speculation changes our relationship to time and organizes our social worlds to maximize the productive capacities of populations around flows of money for finance capital Speculative practices have become a matter of survival and defining features of our age are hardwired to their operations stagnant wages indebtedness the centrality of women's earnings to the household workfarism and more Examining five features of our contemporary economy Lisa Adkins reveals the operations of this speculative rationality Moving beyond claims that indebtedness is intrinsic to contemporary life and vague declarations that the social world has become financialized Adkins delivers a precise examination of the relation between finance and society one that is rich in empirical and analytical detail

Handbook of Social Work Practice with Vulnerable and Resilient Populations Alex Gitterman, 2014-05-06 When community and family support systems are weak or unavailable and when internal resources fail populations that struggle with chronic persistent acute and or unexpected problems become vulnerable to physical cognitive emotional and social deterioration Yet despite numerous risk factors a large number of vulnerable people do live happy and productive lives This best selling handbook examines not only risk and vulnerability factors in disadvantaged populations but also resilience and protective strategies for managing and overcoming adversity This third edition reflects new demographic data research findings and theoretical developments and accounts for changing economic and political realities including immigration and health care policy reforms Contributors have expanded their essays to include practice with individuals families and groups and new chapters consider working with military members and their families victims and survivors of terrorism and torture bullied children and young men of color
