Universities In The Business Of Repression The Academic Military Industrial Complex In Central America:

Universities in the Business of Repression Jonathan Feldman, 1989 An essential guide for students and academics seeking to expose university complicity with militarism and repression in the Third World The Imperial University Piya Chatterjee, Sunaina Maira, 2014-04-15 At colleges and universities throughout the United States political protest and intellectual dissent are increasingly being met with repressive tactics by administrators politicians and the police from the use of SWAT teams to disperse student protestors and the profiling of Muslim and Arab American students to the denial of tenure and dismissal of politically engaged faculty The Imperial University brings together scholars including some who have been targeted for their open criticism of American foreign policy and settler colonialism to explore the policing of knowledge by explicitly linking the academy to the broader politics of militarism racism nationalism and neoliberalism that define the contemporary imperial state The contributors to this book argue that academic freedom is not a sufficient response to the crisis of intellectual repression Instead they contend that battles fought over academic containment must be understood in light of the academy's relationship to U S expansionism and global capital Based on multidisciplinary research autobiographical accounts and even performance scripts this urgent analysis offers sobering insights into such varied manifestations of the imperial university as CIA recruitment at black and Latino colleges the connections between universities and civilian and military prisons and the gender and sexual politics of academic repression Contributors Thomas Abowd Tufts U Victor Bascara UCLA Dana Collins California State U Fullerton Nicholas De Genova Ricardo Dominguez UC San Diego Sylvanna Falcón UC Santa Cruz Farah Godrej UC Riverside Roberto J Gonzalez San Jose State U Alexis Pauline Gumbs Sharmila Lodhia Santa Clara U Julia C Oparah Mills College Vijay Prashad Trinity College Jasbir Puar Rutgers U Laura Pulido U of Southern California Ana Clarissa Rojas Durazo California State U Long Beach Steven Salaita Virginia Tech Molly Talcott California State U Los Angeles Coming To Terms Douglas Allen, 2019-03-04 Despite the plethora of works on the Vietnam War this is the first book to present an accessible overview from both the Indochinese and antiwar perspectives The authors trace the prewar history war years and postwar experiences of Vietnam Cambodia and Laos before turning to the U S experience where they focus on government policies the antiwar movement veterans and films and literature on Vietnam Those who experienced the war era will find their memories vividly rekindled those who wish to learn more about Indochina the war and its aftermath will find these issues provocatively discussed and analyzed _
