Womans Creation Sexual Evolution And The Shaping Of Society:

Woman's Creation Elizabeth Fisher, 1979 What Kind of Animals We are Marge Piercy, 1980 The Creation of Patriarchy Gerda Lerner, 1986 A radical reinterpretation of Western civilization argues that male dominance has resulted from and can be ended by historical process and identifies key developments The Biography of Goddess Inanna; Indomitable Queen of Heaven, Earth and Almost Everything Sandra Bart Heimann, 2016-09-29 When stars were many and people few a great story was told everywhere The first storytellers were women Their story was so large it filled the universe it told of a Great Mother encompassing life death and return of everything When Neolithic farming people settled and depended on plentiful crops and herds a goddess of fertility stepped into stardom Inanna is the Sumerian goddess of love crescent moon evening star fertility and renewal She is the longest lasting supreme goddess of the Ancient Near East Inannas biography includes her rise to supreme holder of almost all the powers of culture and civilization 5000 year old poems bring Inanna to life She sings to her miraculous vulva and to her consort lover she struggles to keep her powers and complains of her losses and demotions Inanna represents lifes powerful contradictions She changes peace to war and back again she causes strife and brings love she turns women into men and men into women Inanna loves all her people every one A biography must have adversity and Inanna has plenty she must always conquer of the ever rising tide of patriarchal domination in all its forms Buried and forgotten for two millennia she now steps from the dust ties up her sandals applies her kohl adjusts her tiara summons her lions and returns Her story is also womans story Let me introduce you to Inanna Queen of Heaven Earth and almost everything The Materiality of Love Anna Malinowska, Michael Gratzke, 2017-09-27 Drawing on love studies and research in material cultures this book seeks to re examine love through materiality studies especially their recent incarnations new materialism and object oriented philosophy to spark a debate on the relationship between love objects and forms of materializing affection It focuses on love as a material form and traces connections between feelings and materiality especially in relation to the changing notion of the material as marked by digital culture as well as the developments in understanding the nature of non human affect It provides insight into how materiality in its broadest sense impacts the understanding of the meanings and practices of love today and reversely how love contributes to the production and transformation of the material world Ecofeminism: Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth Carol J. Adams, Lori Gruen, 2014-07-31 Leading feminist scholars and activists as well as new voices introduce and explore themes central to contemporary ecofeminism Ecofeminism Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth first offers an historical grounding overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism and provides a timeline for important publications and events This is followed by contributions from leading theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world In the final section the contributors explore the complexities of appreciating difference and the possibilities of living less violently Throughout the book the authors engage with intersections of gender and gender non conformity race sexuality disability and species The result is a new up to date resource for students and teachers of animal studies environmental studies feminist gender studies and practical ethics Ecofeminism, Second Edition Carol J. Adams,Lori Gruen,2021-12-16 This new edition of Ecofeminism Feminist Intersections with Other Animals and the Earth begins with an historical grounding overview that situates ecofeminist theory and activism within the larger field of ecocriticism and provides a timeline for important publications and events Throughout the book authors engage with intersections of gender sexuality gender expression race disability and species to address the various ways that sexism heteronormativity racism colonialism and ableism are informed by and support animal oppression This collection is broken down into three separate sections Affect includes contributions from leading theorists and activists on how our emotions and embodiment can and must inform our relationships with the more than human world Context explores the complexities of appreciating difference and the possibilities of living less violently Climate new to the second edition provides an overview of our climate crisis as well as the climate for critical discussion and debate about ecofeminist ideas and actions Drawing on animal studies environmental studies feminist gender studies and practical ethics the ecofeminist contributors to this volume stress the need to move beyond binaries and attend to context over universal judgments spotlight the importance of care as well as justice emotion as well as reason and work to undo the logic of domination and its material implications Battle Cries and Lullabies Linda Grant De Pauw,2014-07-11 IN THIS GROUNDBREAKING WORK covering thousands of years of history and spanning the globe Linda Grant De Pauw explores the varied roles women have played in war De Pauw depicts women as victims and as warriors as nurses spies sex workers and wives and mothers of soldiers as warrior queens leading armies into battle and as baggage carriers marching in the rear Her historical survey provides context for current public policy debates over women in the military Social Lives with Other Animals E. Cudworth,2011-04-01 A provocative sociological account of human relations with non human animals providing an innovative theorization of the social relations of species in terms of complex systemic relations of domination looking at ways Other animals are constitutive of human social lives at the dinner table as livestock and as companions in our homes No Price Too High Robert M. Hardaway,2003-10-30 Hardaway argues the criminalization of victimless crimes violates the Ninth Amendment to the U S Constitution and creates enormous public policy problems in the society He contends that the Ninth Amendment adjudication model and the concepts of self determination and the harm principle are the standards to which privacy issues should be litigated Hardaway contends that privacy issues should be litigated under the standards of the Ninth Amendment to the U S Constitution adjudication model concepts of self determination and the harm principle The Ninth Amendment follows the true beliefs of the founding fathers and their adherence to Natural Law autonomy liberty and the right to privacy This model needs to replace the substantive due process analysis in the realm of personal autonomy issues used by the courts The recognition of self determination and the harm principle will provide individuals with the constitutional protection of rights the founding fathers thought to be imperative to an ordered liberty By seeking to explain American policy on victimless crimes of which drug use is one Hardaway seeks to stir a vigorous constitutional debate As he shows prostitution and gambling raise similar issues and he questions whether criminalization serves the interests of society In examining drug use prostitution and gambling Hardaway compares the policy rationales for each of these societal problems with a view towards creating a general theory of decriminalization An important analysis for scholars students researchers and public policy makers involved with constitutional law and contemporary criminal law concerns
