Universal catalogue of books on art. Quarterly issue of pages extracted from 'Notes and queries'. A-BAENA. (Proof sheets circulated for the purpose of obtaining additions and corrections). Universal catalogue,1868 First Proofs of the Universal Catalogue of Books on Art National Art Library (Great Britain),1870 A New Universal and Pronouncing Dictionary of the French and English Languages Nicolas Gouin Dufief,1810 The Undergrounds of the Phantom of the Opera J. Hogle,2016-04-30 This is the most comprehensive analytical study ever done of The Phantom of the Opera in its many different versions from the original Gaston Leroux novel to the present day It proposes answers to the question why do we keep needing this story told and retold in the Western world by revealing the history of deep cultural tensions that underlie the novel and each major adaptation Using extensive historical and textual evidence and drawing on perspectives from several theories of cultural study this book argues that we need this tale told and reconfigured because it provides us ways to both confront and disguise how we have fashioned our senses of identity in the Western middle class The Phantom of the Opera in varying ways over time turns out like the Gothic tradition it extends to be deeply connected to Western self fashioning in the face of conflicted attitudes about class gender race religious beliefs Freudian psychology economic and international tensions and especially the shifting and permeable boundaries between high and low culture This book should interest all students of the history of Western culture as well as those especially fascinated by Gothic fiction opera musical theatre and film Rivals and Conspirators Fae Brauer,2014-07-08 Once the State run Salon in Paris closed an array of independent Salons mushroomed starting with the French Artists Salon and Women s Salon in 1881 followed by the Independent Artists Salon National Salon of Fine Arts and Autumn Salon Offering an unparalleled choice of art identities and alliances together with undreamed of opportunities for sales commissions prizes and art criticism these great Salons guaranteed the centripetal and centrifugal power of Paris as the modern art centre Lured by the prospect of being exhibited annually in Salons the size of Biennales today a huge number and national diversity of artists from the Australian Rupert Bunny to the Spaniards Pablo Picasso and Juan Gris flocked to Paris Yet by no means were these Salons equal in power nor did they work consensually to forge this modern art centre Formed on the basis of their different cultural politics constantly they rivalled one another for State acquisitions and commissions exhibition places and spaces awards and every other means of enhancing their legitimacy By no means were the avant garde salons those that most succeeded Instead as this cultural political history demonstrates the French Artists and National Fine Art Salons were the most successful with the genderist French Artists Salon being the most powerful and official Despite the renown today of Neo Impressionism Art Nouveau Fauvism Cubism and Orphism the most powerful artists in this modern art centre were not Sonia Delaunay mile Gall Paul Signac Henri Matisse or even Picasso but such Academicians as L on Bonnat William Bouguereau Fernand Cormon Edouard Detaille Gabriel Ferrier Jean Paul Laurens Luc Oliver Merson and Aim Morot who exhibited at the official Salon supported by the machinery of the State In its exposure of the rivalry conflict and struggle between the Salons and their artists this is an unprecedented history of dissension It also exposes how just below the welcoming internationalist veneer of this modern art centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France s civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown Spartacus Arthur

,1998 The First Proofs of the Universal Catalogue of Books on Art Victoria and Albert museum (Londres). National art library,1877 Logical Fictions in Medieval Literature and Philosophy Virginie Greene,2014-10-23

In the twelfth and thirteenth centuries new ways of storytelling and inventing fictions appeared in the French speaking areas of Europe This new art still influences our global culture of fiction Virginie Greene explores the relationship between fiction and the development of neo Aristotelian logic during this period through a close examination of seminal literary and philosophical texts by major medieval authors such as Anselm of Canterbury Ab lard and Chr tien de Troyes This study of Old French logical fictions encourages a broader theoretical reflection about fiction as a universal human trait and a defining element of the history of Western philosophy and literature Additional close readings of classical Greek philosophers Plato and Aristotle and modern analytic philosophy including the work of Bertrand Russell and Rudolf Carnap demonstrate peculiar traits of Western rationalism and expose its ambivalent relationship to fiction Le Guide Musical ,1860
