Understanding May Sarton Understanding May Sarton:

Understanding May Sarton Mark K. Fulk, 2001 The writings of feminist author May Sarton though often underappreciated during her lifetime have attracted a wider audience since her death in 1995 This text is a guide to Sarton's poetry novels and memoirs for students and the interested general reader Fulk English John Brown U provides biographical background information discusses the primary themes in Sarton's writing and emphasizes the spiritual dimensions of her thought c Book News Inc May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton, 2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown May Sarton Margot Peters, 2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton's career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton's letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton's exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne's Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton's literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden Women's Life-writing Linda S. Coleman, 1997 The essays in this collection offer readers vivid and varied evidence of the female response to recurring attempts by culture to artificially limit identity along the gendered lines of private and public experience Calling on voices both familiar and little known British and American black and white young and old poor and rich heterosexual and lesbian the essayists explore how women within unique personal and historical conditions used life writing as a means of both self understanding and connection to a community of sympathetic others real or imagined The life writings within this anthology span the modern history of the genre itself with writers drawn from as early as the seventeenth century and as late as the 1990s

Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Mark K. Fulk, 2021-04-13 Interpreting Susan Sontag's Essays Radical Contemplative offers its readers a scholarly examination of her essays within the context of philosophy and aesthetic theory This study sets up a dialogue between her works and their philosophical counterparts in France and Germany including the works of Hannah Arendt Jacques Derrida Roland Barthes and Walter Benjamin Artists and concepts discussed in relation to Sontag's essays include the works of Andy Warhol Pop Art French New Wave Cinema the music of John Cage and the cinematic art of Robert Bresson Leni Riefenstahl Ingmar Bergman and Jean Luc Godard Her aesthetic formalism is compared with Harold Bloom and this is the first volume to examine her late works and their position within the American events of 9 11 01 and the War on Terrorism

The Poetry of May Sarton Volume One May Sarton, 2018-11-20 Three celebrated volumes of verse from a feminist icon poet and author of the groundbreaking novel Mrs Stevens Hears the Mermaids Singing Letters from Maine A rugged coastline provides a stark background for Sarton's images of a tragically brief love With vulnerability and emotional depth she explores the willingness to devote everything to a new love as well as the despair at the memory of what is left over when it fades Inner Landscape This collection of May Sarton's poems displays her inimitable mix of stately verse and depth of feeling that lurks beneath every line creating a tantalizing magnetically charged distance between reader and poet Halfway to Silence After decades of writing flowing lyric verse May Sarton's style turned to short vibrant bursts of poetry These condensed poems are rife with exuberant impressions of nature and of love including two of her most acclaimed works Old Lovers at the Ballet and Of the Muse Recognized as a true pioneer in lesbian literature Sarton's poems enter and illuminate every natural corner of our lives So strong in their faith and in their positive response to the human condition that they will outlast much of the fashionable cynical poetry of our era James

Martin Gerontological Practice for the Twenty-first Century Virginia E. Richardson, Amanda Smith Barusch, 2006 Gerontological Practice for the Twenty first Century provides state of the art information on practice approaches with older patients that are age specific and empirically based Part 1 reviews current and classic theories of aging and proposes an original framework to practice that incorporates both individual and policy level interventions Part 2 covers such psychological problems as anxiety depression suicide substance abuse and dementia and describes appropriate evidence based interventions Part 3 discusses working with older families end of life care bereavement and work and retirement and part 4 focuses on core sociopolitical issues in the lives of older people such as economic policy poverty health policy quality of life concerns and social services Designed as a text for students and as a professional resource for practitioners this book is a comprehensive review of the current literature and contains authoritative information on issues relating to a vulnerable population in need of sophisticated care May Sarton: A Self-Portrait May Sarton, 2015-08-18 This transcript from the film World of Light A Portrait of May Sarton illuminates the life and writing of the poet while celebrating the joys of creativity love and solitude In June of 1979 May Sarton answered the questions of two filmmakers and read to them from her poetry This four day jam session ultimately became an acclaimed documentary about her life and work For Sarton the muse has always been female and the writer says that her own poems tell me where to go In this rare and inspiring window into a singular woman's soul Sarton speaks candidly about everything from how a single image opened the door to writing about her mother to the importance of transparency in art and life She shares insights into her very personal art including the unusual people and events that provide inspiration how creativity can grow out of pain solitude as a two edged sword the difficulties of being a female poet and the ways love can open the door into one's own secret and frightening real self Featuring sections entitled On Inner Space On Nature and On Love this revealing volume is also about the need to go on even when up against overwhelming odds May Sarton A Self Portrait pays tribute to an artist's vision and serves as a revealing window into a fascinating life
