point ever come near me in the future You destroyed my life I was denied of my life by you I was in the dark for thirty years loving and having children with the wrong woman Oh God For what reason did you permit this happen to me Celine you are wicked You are abhorrent You are wicked You are shrewd I swear you will pay for this you will I was perched on the floor crying and perspiring What really happened was that Dad Uzonzo actually kept the appeal that fortified Celine and I together such a long time The charm was consumed by fire when his house was destroyed As a result I was freed and my eyes once more opened My life returned to the day I was bewitched and singing to Okonnie immediately after I was released To that end I wound up requesting that Okonnie sing for me though it had been a long time since and Okonnie had proactively gone I wished the house had burned down earlier so I could have left Celine and gone back to my beloved Okonnie who according to what I was told had since married and returned to Ghana Notwithstanding it was past the point of no return now Thirty years isn t thirty days I was already an elderly man I came to the conclusion that despite everything Celine did to me I could not begin a new life at nearly seventy For the youngsters she had given me I concluded that I would pardon her and stay wedded to her I made the decision to trust God with everything I would attempt to be a decent spouse to her and a decent dad to my children May Lord have mercy on me My recommendation to young fellows out there is that they ought to be cautious with the sort of ladies they meet There are some women who support the devil Whenever you are hitched never surrender to the tensions of another lady It won t help you at all All things being equal it will annihilate your life You must read my tale As a result you fully comprehend what I m saying May Lord have mercy on all of us Man and Wife Andrelle
