Walking Away From Nuremberg Just War And The Doctrine Of Command Responsibility:

Walking Away from Nuremberg Lawrence Rockwood, 2007 Walking Away from Nuremberg Lawrence Rockwood, 2007 In September 1994 Lawrence P Rockwood then a counterintelligence officer with the U S Army s Tenth Mountain Division was deployed to Haiti as part of Operation Restore Democracy the American led mission to oust the regime of Raoul Cedras and reinstall President Jean Bertrand Aristide Shortly after arriving in country Captain Rockwood began receiving reports of human rights abuses at the local jails including the murder of political prisoners Walking Away from Nuremberg Lawrence Rockwood, 2005 Wehrmacht Priests Lauren Faulkner Rossi, 2015-04-06 Lauren Faulkner Rossi plumbs the moral justifications of Catholic priests who served willingly and faithfully in the German army in World War II She probes the Church s accommodations with Hitler s regime its fierce but often futile attempts to preserve independence and the shortcomings of Church doctrine in the face of total war and genocide The CIA on Campus Philip Zwerling, 2011-10-14 Former CIA Personnel Director F W M Janney once wrote It is absolutely essential that the Agency have available to it the greatest single source of expertise the American academic community To this end the Central Intelligence Agency has poured tens of millions of dollars into universities to influence research and enlist students and faculty members into its ranks This collection of nine essays from diverse academic fields explores the pernicious penetration of intelligence services into U S campus life to exploit academic study recruit students skew publications influence professional advancement misinform the public and spy on professors With its exhaustive list of CIA misdeeds and myriad suggestions for combatting the subversion of academic independence this work provides a wake up call for students and faculty across the country My Lai William Thomas Allison, 2012-10-01 Allison tells the story of a terrible moment in American history and explores how to deal with the aftermath On March 16 1968 American soldiers killed as many as five hundred Vietnamese men women and children in a village near the South China Sea In My Lai William Thomas Allison explores and evaluates the significance of this horrific event How could such a thing have happened Who or what should be held accountable How do we remember this atrocity and try to apply its lessons if any My Lai has fixed the attention of Americans of various political stripes for more than forty years The breadth of writing on the massacre from news reports to scholarly accounts highlights the difficulty of establishing fact and motive in an incident during which confusion prejudice and self preservation overwhelmed the troops Son of a Marine veteran of the Vietnam War and aware that the generation who lived through the incident is aging Allison seeks to ensure that our collective memory of this shameful episode does not fade Well written and accessible Allison s book provides a clear narrative of this historic moment and offers suggestions for how to come to terms with its aftermath Spirituality and the Ethics of Torture D. Jeffreys, 2009-06-22 What exactly is torture Should we torture suspected terrorists if they have information about future violent acts Defining torture carefully the book defends the idea that all people are valuable and rejects moral defenses of torture It focuses particularly on practices like sensory deprivation which perniciously attack the human psyche Translating Guilt Cassandra Steer, 2017-02-26 This book seeks to understand how and why we should hold leaders responsible for the collective mass atrocities that are committed in times of conflict It attempts to untangle the debates on modes of liability in international criminal law ICL that have become truly complex over the last twenty years and to provide a way to identify the most appropriate model for leadership liability A unique comparative theory of ICL is offered which clarifies the way in which ICL develops as a patchwork of different domestic criminal law notions This theory forms the basis for the comparison of some influential domestic criminal law systems with a view to understanding the policy and cultural reasons for their differences There is a particular focus on the background of the German law which has influenced the International Criminal Court so much recently This helps to understand and seek a solution to the current impasses in the debates on which model of liability should be applied An entire chapter of the book is devoted to considering why leaders should be held responsible for crimes committed by their subordinates from legal moral and pragmatic perspectives The moral responsibility of leaders is translated into criminal liability and the different domestic models of liability are translated to the international context in such a way as to appeal to advanced students of ICL academics and practitioners who want to understand the complexities of leadership liability in international criminal law today and identify the best way to approach it Cassandra Steer is Executive Director of Women in International Security Canada and Junior Wainwright Fellow at McGill University Canada She holds a Ph D in Law from the University of Amsterdam The Netherlands Crimes against Humanity M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2011-04-25 This book traces the evolution of crimes against humanity CAH and their application from the end of World War I to the present day in terms of both historic legal analysis and subject matter content The first part of the book addresses general issues pertaining to the categorization of CAH in normative jurisprudential and doctrinal terms This is followed by an analysis of the specific contents of CAH describing its historic phases going through international criminal tribunals mixed model tribunals and the International Criminal Court The book examines the general parts and defenses of the crime along with the history and jurisprudence of both international and national prosecutions For the first time a list of all countries that have enacted national legislation specifically directed at CAH is collected along with all of the national prosecutions that have occurred under national legislation up to 2010 The Journal of Military History ,2007 OAH Annual Meeting Organization of American Historians. Meeting, 2008 Directory of History Departments and Organizations in the United States and Canada ,2005 America, History and Life ,2006 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Directory of History Departments, Historical Organizations, and Historians ,2005 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2006 The Laws of War 25 Years After Nuremberg Tom J.
