Tutoring Second Language Writers Shanti Bruce, Ben Rafoth, 2016-03-01 Tutoring Second Language Writers a complete update of Bruce and Rafoth's 2009 ESL Writers is a guide for writing center tutors that addresses the growing need for tutors who are better prepared to work with the increasingly international population of students seeking guidance at the writing center. Drawing upon philosopher John Dewey's belief in reflective thinking as a way to help build new knowledge, the book is divided into four parts. Part 1 Actions and Identities is about creating a proactive stance toward language difference, thinking critically about labels, and the mixed feelings students may have about learning English. Part 2 Research Opportunities demonstrates writing center research projects and illustrates methods tutors can use to investigate their questions about writing center work. Part 3 Words and Passages offers four personal stories of inquiry and discovery, and Part 4 Academic Expectations describes some of the challenges tutors face when they try to help writers meet readers' specific expectations. Advancing the conversations tutors have with one another and their directors about tutoring second language writers and writing, Tutoring Second Language Writers engages readers with current ideas and issues that highlight the excitement and challenge of working with those who speak English as a second or additional language. Contributors include Jocelyn Amevuvor, Rebecca Day, Babcock, Valerie M. Balester, Shanti Bruce, Frankie Condon, Michelle Cox, Jennifer Craig, Kevin Dvorak, Paula Gillespie, Glenn Hutchinson, Pei Hsun, Emma Liu, Bobbi Olson, Pimyupa W. Praphan, Ben Rafoth, Jose L. Reyes Medina, Guiboke Seong, and Elizabeth Adelay Witherite.

ESL Writers Shanti Bruce, 2004 Finally a book written for writing center tutors who assist ESL students. Combining practical tutoring advice with insights that build cultural bridges, ESL Writers helps tutors create a more meaningful and effective exchange between themselves and nonnative English speakers. ESL Writers is divided into three parts. Cultural Contexts examines many of the challenges students face as they become proficient speakers and writers of English. The ESL Tutoring Session focuses on individual meetings with students whose primary language is not English. Packed with helpful tips and new perspectives on familiar routines, this section demonstrates strategies likely to be effective with nonnative speakers. A Broader View adds depth and breadth to the discussion by demonstrating how writing centers abroad operate, offering insights into the rules and conventions of English and sharing the stories of ESL students who visit the writing center. For tutors, this indispensable guide gives them the know-how to make better informed choices as they conduct sessions with ESL students. For writing center directors, ESL Writers is the perfect training text, and its examples and scenarios are the ideal jumping off point for staff meetings and group problem-solving sessions.

Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing Rosa M. Manchón, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2016-09-12 The Handbook of Second and Foreign Language Writing is an authoritative reference compendium of the theory and research on second and foreign language writing that can be of value to researchers, professionals, and graduate students. It is intended both as a retrospective critical reflection that can situate research on L2 writing in its historical context and provide a state of the art view of past achievements and as a prospective critical analysis of what lies ahead in terms of theory research and applications Accordingly the Handbook aims to provide i foundational information on the emergence and subsequent evolution of the field ii state of the art surveys of available theoretical and research basic and applied insights iii overviews of research methods in L2 writing research iv critical reflections on future developments and iv explorations of existing and emerging disciplinary interfaces with other fields of inquiry

Internationalizing the Writing Center Noreen Groover Lape,2020-03-10 Internationalizing the Writing Center provides a rationale pedagogical plan and administrative method for developing a multilingual writing center The book incorporates work from writing center studies as well as second language acquisition studies including English as a second language English as a foreign language second language writing and foreign language writing Author Noreen Lape draws on ten years of experience directing a multilingual writing center that offers writing tutoring in eleven languages and she incorporates the voices and insights of foreign language writing tutors and faculty from surveys interviews and tutoring session reports Lape begins by exploring the dominance of English medium writing centers in a globalized world and arguing for the expansion of English centric into multilingual writing centers She then considers how tutor training differs when the writing center is multilingual as opposed to monolingual and the writing is second language and foreign language as well as native language The chapters on tutor training explore issues such as holistic tutoring composing in a foreign language the role of translating in the writing process creating a positive learning environment and developing intercultural competence In multiple appendices Lape shares original exercises that writing center administrators can use to train foreign language writing tutors The book ends with a discussion of strategies for engaging faculty and administrators as stakeholders and collaborating with those stakeholders to create a sustainable center

The Internationalization of US Writing Programs Shirley K Rose,Irwin Weiser,2018-04-02 The Internationalization of US Writing Programs illuminates the role writing programs and WPAs play in defining goals curriculum placement assessment faculty development and instruction for international student populations The volume offers multiple theoretical approaches to the work of writing programs and illustrates a wide range of well planned writing program based empirical research projects As of 2016 over 425 000 international students were enrolled as undergraduates in US colleges and universities part of a decade long trend of increasing numbers of international students coming to the United States for both undergraduate and graduate degrees Writing program administrators and writing teachers across the country are beginning to recognize this changing demographic as a useful catalyst for change in writing programs which are tasked with preparing all students regardless of initial level of English proficiency for academic and professional writing The Internationalization of US Writing Programs is the first collection to focus specifically on this crucial aspect of the roles and responsibilities of WPAs who are leading efforts to provide all students on their campuses regardless of nationality or first language with competencies in writing that will serve them in the academy and beyond Contributors Jonathan Benda Michael Dedek Christiane Donahue

Out in the Center Harry C. Denny, Robert Mundy, Liliana M. Naydan, Richard Sévère, Anna Sicari, 2019-03-01 Out in the Center explores the personal struggles of tutors faculty and administrators in writing center communities as they negotiate the interplay between public controversies and features of their own intersectional identities These essays address how race ethnicity gender sexuality class faith multilingualism and learning differences along with their intersections challenge those who inhabit writing centers and engage in their conversations A diverse group of contributors interweaves personal experience with writing center theory and critical race theory as well as theories on the politics and performance of identity In doing so Out in the Center extends upon the writing center corpus to disrupt and reimagine conventional approaches to writing center theory and practice Out in the Center proposes that practitioners benefit from engaging in dialogue about identity to better navigate writing center work work that informs the local and carries forth a social and cultural impact that stretches well beyond academic institutions Contributors Allia Abdullah Matta Nancy Alvarez Hadi Banat Tammy S Conard Salvo Michele Eodice Rochell Isaac Sami Korgan Ella Leviyeva Alexandria Lockett Talisha Haltiwanger Morrison Anna Rita Napoleone Beth A Towle Elizabeth Weaver Tim Zmudka

Around the Texts of Writing Center Work R. Mark Hall, 2017-05-01 Around the Texts of Writing Center Work reveals the conceptual frameworks found in and created by ordinary writing center documents The values and beliefs underlying course syllabi policy statements website copy and comments assessment plans promotional flyers and annual reports critically inform writing center practices including the vital undertaking of tutor education In each chapter author R Mark Hall focuses on a particular document He examines its origins its use by writing center instructors and tutors and its engagement with enduring disciplinary challenges in the field of composition such as tutoring and program assessment He then analyzes each document in the contexts of the conceptual framework at the heart of its creation and everyday application activity theory communities of practice discourse analysis reflective practice and inquiry based learning Around the Texts of Writing Center Work approaches the analysis of writing center documents with an inquiry stance a call for curiosity and skepticism toward existing and proposed conceptual frameworks in the hope that the theoretically conscious evaluation and revision of commonplace documents will lead to greater efficacy and more abundant research by writing center administrators and students

Multilingual Writers and Writing Centers Ben Rafoth, 2015-01-15 Multilingual writers often graduate students with more content knowledge and broader cultural experience than a monolingual tuto unbalance the typical tutor client relationship and pose a unique challenge for the writing center Multilingual Writers and Writing Centers explores how directors and tutors can better prepare for the growing number of one to one conferences with these multilingual writers they will increasingly encounter in the future This much needed addition of second language acquisition SLA research and teaching to the literature of writing center pedagogy draws from SLA literature a body of interviews Rafoth conducted with writing center directors students and tutors and his own decades of experience Well grounded in daily writing center practice the author addresses which concepts and practices directors can borrow from the field of SLA to help tutors respond to the needs of multilingual writers what directors need to know about these concepts and practices and how tutoring might change in response to changes in student populations Multilingual Writers and Writing Centers is a call to invigorate the preparation of tutors and directors for the negotiation of the complexities of multilingual and multicultural communication

Queerly Centered Travis Webster, 2021-11-01 Queerly Centered explores writing center administration and queer identity showcasing LGBTQA labor undertaken but not previously acknowledged or documented in the field's research. Drawing from interviews with twenty queer writing center directors, Travis Webster examines the lived experiences of queer people leading writing centers, the promise and occasional peril of this work, and the disciplinary implications of such work for writing center administration, research, and praxis. Focused on directors' queer histories, administrative activisms, and on the job tensions, this study connects and departs from oft-referenced lenses such as emotional and invisible labor for understanding work in higher education. The first book-length project that exclusively bridges writing centers and LGBTQ studies, Queerly Centered is for researchers, administrators, educators, and practitioners of all orientations and backgrounds in writing center and writing program administration, rhetoric and composition, and higher education administration.
