decidedly male This unique reference offers alternate approaches to reading traditional literature as well as suggestions for expanding the canon to include more gender sensitive works Covering 96 of the most frequently taught works of fiction essays offer teachers librarians and students fresh insights into the female perspective in literature The list of titles created in consultation with educators includes classic works by male authors like Dickens Faulkner and Twain balanced with works by female authors such as Kate Chopin s The Awakening and Mary Shelley s Frankenstein Also included are contemporary works by writers such as Alice Walker and Margaret Atwood that are being incorporated into the curriculum as well as those advancing a more global view such as Sandra Cisneros House on Mango Street and Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart The essays are expertly written in an accessible language that will help students gain greater awareness of gender related themes Suggestions for classroom discussions with selected works for further study are incorporated into the entries The volume is organized alphabetically by title and includes both author and subject indexes An appendix of gender related themes further enhances this volume s usefulness for curriculum applications and student research projects

Women Writing and Writing about Women Mary Jacobus,2012 United by a common focus on writing by and about women this collection of contemporary essays spanning the novel poetry drama film and criticism emphasises some of the problems of theory and practice posed by writing as a woman and by women s representation in literature The subjects of individual essays range from the nineteenth and twentieth century novel to avant garde film and from Victorian women poets to Russian women poets of today Drawing on structuralism psychoanalysis semiotics socio linguistics and Marxist analyses of literature the diverse essays suggest the variety and vigour of contemporary feminist literary criticism as well as representing the debates animating it Successfully bridging the gap between literary criticism and literary production the scope of this collection will be of considerable interest to those concerned with developments in literary criticism as well as to those in the field of women s studies
