Women Resisting Violence Spirituality For Life:

Women Resisting Violence Mary John Mananzan, Mercy A. Oduyoye, Elsa Tamez, J. Shannon Clarkson, Mary C. Grey, 2004-10-28 This collection of original essays comprises an international who s who of women theologians writing on a topic that impacts the lives of women everywhere In December 1994 forty five outstanding feminist theologians from around the world met in Costa Rica to discuss the impact of violence against women For a full week these theologians dialogued on the many forms of violence economic military cultural ecological domestic and physical violence From this multivoice dialogue Women Resisting Violence offers a truly global truly cutting edge resource on the implications of violence against women

Integrative Women's Health Victoria Maizes, Tieraona Low Dog, 2015-11-19 Integrative Women's Health is a comprehensive reference that combines conventional approaches with alternative therapies providing an evidence based guide to whole body integrative care for women's health

Spirituality and Ageing Albert Jewell, 1999 Spirituality and Ageing presents the experience of ageing as an opportunity for spiritual reflection and affirmation of life The contributors are religious and spiritual leaders and ethical thinkers from a range of different backgrounds They define spirituality not just as a religious concept but as the fulfilment of the universal human need for purpose values and relationships a sense of wholeness in life This spiritual dimension helps people face the emotional and psychological challenges of growing older such as memory loss dementia bereavement and fear of death Existing systems of social care often focus on the material and physical needs of older people this collection proposes that the spiritual needs of older people are as vital a consideration for their welfare Through their spirituality older people can attain a fuller appreciation and understanding of life which can also inform and enrich the lives of others Spirituality and Ageing will be an invaluable resource to carers looking for a holistic and more reflective approach to work with older people

Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White, 2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice

The Language of Battered Women Carol L. Winkelmann, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2005 Outstanding Book Award presented by the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender OSCLG This study of battered women living in a shelter offers a rhetorical analysis of survivors personal theologies Author Carol L Winkelmann holds that while it is virtually ignored in the domestic violence literature the Christian heritage of many battered women plays a significant if complicated role in their language thoughts and lives The women s religious faith serves not only to sustain them through periods of profound suffering but also to develop solidarity with other culturally different women in the shelter Designed to assist women to greater independence the shelter actually functions as a culture of surveillance where women turn to one another and to their faith to cope with the trauma of violence To heal the women engage in dialogue that is dense in religious imagery talking about the relationship of God and the church to suffering and evil At the same time these women also acknowledge that organized religion is very much involved in the maintenance of patriarchal marriage and its attendant abuses in their own lives Together battered women are sometimes able to construct creative theological responses to the problem of suffering and evil A mix of religious and secular languages compels them to devise new ways of thinking about their role in family church and society

Dictionary of Mission Karl Muller, Theo Sundermeier, Stephen B. Bevans, Richard H. Bliese, 2006-01-30 Conceived and developed by two of Europe s most eminent missiologists in the country where the scientific and sustained study of mission first took shape the Dictionary of Mission represents the finest of the chorus of voices that comprise contemporary missiology The choice of topics and the authors to address them reflects what Christian mission has become a genuinely worldwide and ecumenical phenomenon That there would be entries on regional theological developments is indicative of how the world church is developing A host of other topics here explored show too how the landscape of mission is changing Taken as a whole then the Dictionary of Mission is a road map through this exciting and challenging terrain from the Foreword

Religion, Conflict, and Democracy in Modern Africa Samuel K. Elolia, 2012-03-02 Spanning various regions of Sub Saharan Africa the authors of this volume come together to explore the complex relationship between religion and democracy in contemporary Africa As a result of the end of the Cold War and the fall of the Soviet Union many African countries have come to the realization however partial that political and social change is inevitable in spite of government heavy handedness and threats It has also become evident that no political system that refuses to permit freedom of political expression and alternative systems of governance could continue to be sustained It is in precisely this political climate that religious institutions have collaborated with other elements of civil society to call for political reforms with the church often becoming the prominent voice against oppressive governments in countries such as Kenya and South Africa It is the purpose of this book to assess how religion shapes political issues and to what extent religious forces influence the civil society By acknowledging the role of the civil society the essays recognize the resilience that comes out of Africa even when the sociopolitical situation seems unbearable

Interpreting the Postmodern Rosemary Radford Ruether, Marion Grau, 2006-01-19 A collection of feminist historical liberation and constructive theological responses Radical Orthodoxy

Antifeminism and Family Terrorism Rhonda Hammer, 2002 Rhonda Hammer s Antifeminism and Family Terrorism presents original and provocative critical feminist perspectives on violence against women and children Hammer provides a clear and insightful analysis of the current rhetoric produced by antifeminists who would deny the seriousness of the problem and thus undercut important feminist concerns Dr Hammer documents the tragic dimensions of the brutalization of women and children in the family and the larger problem of the increasing poverty and oppression of women and children in the global economy

Women and Christianity Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Karen Jo Torjesen, 2009-12-22 This work explores the impact of Christian women as scholars and leaders representing the ethnic national racial and denominational diversity of Christianity today on all aspects of life Women and Christianity explores the experiences of women and how their daily lives interface with their spirituality and faith Beginning with a historical overview the book presents essays grouped under five broad headings women family and environment socioeconomics politics and authority body mind and spirit sex power and vulnerability and women world view and religious practice These essays focus on multiple aspects of women s experiences and contemporary Christian realities involving the interrelatedness of faith thought and activism across many strata of global society They wrestle with the daily experiences and challenges women face integrating their lives as women of faith as they are advocates experience agency and work for mutuality It shows how in all these roles women must negotiate power injustice and the impact of sexism as they work within systemic oppression amid a patriarchal system nevertheless championing change and refusing to be severely compromised
