White Middle Class Identities And Urban Schooling Identity Studies In The Social Sciences:

White Middle-Class Identities and Urban Schooling D. Reay, G. Crozier, D. James, 2011-03-31 This book examines experiences and implications of against the grain school choices where white middle class families choose ordinary and low performing secondary schools for their children It offers a unique view of identity formation taking in matters like family history locality and whiteness Upper Middle Class Social Reproduction María Luisa Méndez, Modesto Gayo, 2018-06-01 In the contemporary context of increasing inequality and various forms of segregation this volume analyzes the transition to neoliberal politics in Santiago de Chile Using an innovative methodological approach that combines georeferenced data and multi stage cluster analysis Méndez and Gayo study the old and new mechanisms of social reproduction among the upper middle class In so doing they not only capture the interconnections between macro and microsocial dimensions such as urban dynamics schooling demands cultural repertoires and socio spatial trajectories but also offer a detailed account of elite formation intergenerational accumulation and economic cultural and social inheritance dynamics Elites and People Fredrik Engelstad, Trygve Gulbrandsen, Marte Mangset, Mari Teigen, 2019-10-07 This volume contains an Open Access chapter The present volume of Comparative Social Research offers a broad set of comparative studies of elites stretching from the Arab Spring in Tunisia and Egypt to women's political leadership in Brazil and Germany via attainment of elite positions among minorities in France and the US Feeding the Middle Classes Kate Gibson, 2023-11-20 Political and public stories about class and food rarely scrutinize how socio economic and cultural resources enable access to certain foods Tracing the symbolic links between everyday eating at home and broader social frameworks this book examines how classed relations play out in middle class homes to show why class is relevant to all understandings of food in Great Britain The author illuminates how good food and the identities configured through its consumption is associated with middle class lifestyles and why this relationship is often unquestioned and thus saliently normalized Considering food consumption in a wider social context the book offers an alternative understanding of class relations which extends academic political and public debates about privilege Inside the English education lab Christy Kulz, Kirsty Morrin, Ruth McGinity, 2022-08-09 Inside the English education lab offers a range of qualitative and ethnographic explorations of the academies programme in England Drawing on examples from primary and secondary academy institutions a free school and Multi Academy Trusts the collection explores how promises of academy policy are often at odds with everyday practice Data and evidence throughout the collection highlight a multitude of ways in which the academies experiment retrenches rather than reforms inequalities Methodological insights and innovations are also a central feature of the collection where authors interrogate what it means to collect and produce data in the current political context Affect and Emotion Margaret Wetherell, 2012-02-13 Absolutely essential reading for those wanting to understand the recent turn to affect Offering an extensive analysis of all the perspectives available including the psycho neuro bio and social Margie Wetherell treads a magisterial path through the radically different offerings one that illuminates key ideas and will save the uninitiated wandering down many pointless avenues A path setting book Professor Beverley Skeggs Goldsmiths In recent years there has been a huge surge of interest in affect and emotion Scholars want to discover how people are moved and understand embodied social action feelings and passions How do social formations grab people How do roller coasters of contempt patriotism hate and euphoria power public life A new social science understanding of affect and emotion is long overdue and Margaret Wetherell s voice is timely providing a coherent and pragmatic text It will be invaluable reading for those interested in this fascinating field across the social and behavioural sciences Current Index to Journals in Education ,2000 The Social Construction of Urban Schooling Luis F. Mirón,1996 This text explores the possibilities for the reconstruction of urban schooling The author urges a rethinking of the concept of urban education and a theory of the relationships between urban processes and urban schooling

Science, Learning, Identity Wolff-Michael Roth,Kenneth George Tobin,2007 Over the recent years identity has become one of the most central theoretical concept and topics of scholarship in a number of disciplines including science education In this volume leading science educators articulate in carefully prepared case studies their theoretical perspective on science learning and identity More importantly the authors of the chapters that in the different parts of the book engage each other in a collaboratively written chapter concerning some of the central issues that have arisen from their individual studies and in particular they engage each other over the similarities and differences between their approaches This book which features detailed case studies of identity as both resource and outcomes of learners in a variety of settings will be of interest to anyone concerned with learning science in and out of schools The book also caters for readers who have wondered about how identity mediates science learning and simultaneously how engagement in science related tasks and activities mediates the emergence and development of identities The general tenor of all chapters is a cultural historical and sociocultural framework that is brought to issues of identity thereby inherently transcending the individual person and linking identity to cultural possibilities Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Towards a Social Science of Language: Variation and change in language and society Gregory R.
