Why I Am A Priest Thirty Success Stories:

Why I Am a Priest Lawrence Boadt, Michael J. Hunt, 1999 Thirty priests both well known and not answer the questions why they are a priest and why they are still a priest today revealing much about themselves and the general state of the priesthood

From Celibate Catholic Priest to Married Protestant Minister Stephen Joseph Fichter, 2015-07-15 From Celibate Catholic Priest to Married Protestant Minister Shepherding in Greener Pastures describes a previously unstudied population of celibate Catholic priests who left the priesthood and eventually became married Protestant ministers Stephen Fichter alternates from narrative to descriptive as he follows the lives of three of his study participants before during and after their dual transition The descriptive sections include a history of religiously motivated celibacy and a review of the four leading forerunners in the field of Catholic clergy research This scholarly study is the first time that these transitional clerics have candidly explained their difficult journeys of discernment Religion love loss and commitment are all analyzed in the context of this unique group of men and the profiles in this book are memorable not only for the richness of their content but also and maybe most importantly for their humanity Lessons can be drawn for all people especially those who have ever suffered a mid life crisis

Passionate Uncertainty Peter McDonough, Eugene C. Bianchi, 2002-03-05 Founded by Ignatius Loyola in 1540 the Society of Jesus remains the largest and most controversial religious order of men in Catholicism Since the 1960s however Jesuits in the United States have lost more than half of their members and they have experienced a massive upheaval in what they believe and how they work and live In this groundbreaking book Peter McDonough and Eugene C Bianchi draw on interviews and statements gathered from more than four hundred Jesuits and former Jesuits to provide an intimate look at turmoil among Catholicism's legendary best and brightest Priests and former priests speak candidly about their reasons for joining and leaving the Jesuits about their sexual development and orientation about their spiritual crises and their engagement with other religious traditions They discuss issues ranging from celibacy to the ordination of women homosexuality the rationale of the priesthood the challenges of community life and the divinity of Jesus Passionate Uncertainty traces the transformation of the Society of Jesus from a fairly unified organization into a smaller looser community with disparate goals and an elusive corporate identity From its role as a traditional subculture during the days of immigrant Catholicism the order has changed into an amalgam of countercultures shaped around social mission sexual identity and an eclectic spirituality The story of the Jesuits reflects the crisis of clerical authority and the deep ambivalence surrounding American Catholicism's encounter with modernity

Gold Tested in Fire Ronald D. Witherup, 2012-02-01 The recent Year for Priests focused considerable attention on the priesthood resulting in many books articles retreats conferences and symposia In Gold Tested in Fire Ronald D Witherup SS makes an important new contribution Intersecting scriptural and theological context with lived pastoral insight Witherup explores both classic and contemporary understandings of the priesthood offers insights into the four pillars suggested for priestly formation and looks at the charism of priests and the need for ongoing formation across a life span Having engaged in priestly formation in seminaries for a number of years Witherup moves beyond overly idealized or pietistic approaches to the presbyteral life to offer key insights on the challenges and rewards inherent in contemporary priestly ministry Underlying his approach is the firm conviction that the present testing in the priesthood is a profound summons to a new Pentecost in opportunity for the priesthood to be cleansed and remade and ultimately stronger The Catholic Library World John M.
