The Wordsworth Of Horror Stories Special Edition Using:

The Wordsworth Book of Horror Stories Various, 2005-01-05 A superb collection of some of the greatest tales of the genre many are classics while others are lesser known gems unearthed from the vintage era of the supernatural The Woman in Black Mark Fryers, Marcus K. Harmes, 2025-03-21 The Woman in Black terrified viewers in 1989 and is remembered as one of Britain's scariest horror films It is justly famous as the combined work of three giants of British drama Susan Hill Nigel Kneale and Herbert Wise This book is the first to study the rich themes and terrifying impact of this film presenting it as a TV film that is cinematic in its effect and quality The book traces the adaptation of Susan Hill's novel paying close attention to the ways in which the celebrated writer Nigel Kneale turned a popular book into a spooky film and reconstructs the brilliance of veteran director Herbert Wise It also explores themes ranging from maternal rage and imperial disquiet to eerie soundscapes and landscapes Archival papers from the Nigel Kneale Archive on the Isle of Man are used to reveal how Kneale transformed the novel into the script and interviews with production personnel shed light on the remarkable talent and experience of the team who produced this classic film T.E.D. Klein and the Rupture of Civilization Thomas Phillips, 2017-07-14 Lauded by critics yet largely unappreciated by fans of horror and weird fiction T E D Klein is considered one of the great horror writers despite his scant body of work His prose blends the mundane and the supernatural conjuring the monstrous and the malign with accessible but charged discourse that breaks with the formulaic entries in the genre Exploring a range of topics from religious fundamentalism and right wing extremism to fashionable pessimism and the rise of digital humanities the author argues that Klein's work is a prime example of what he terms critical horror a distinct subgenre that entertains while questioning individual and cultural complacency Terror by Night Ambrose Bierce, 2006 Of all the writers of ghost and horror stories Ambrose Bierce is perhaps the most colourful He was a dark cynical and pessimistic soul who had a grim vision of fate and the unfairness of life which he channelled into his fiction

The Perturbed Self Mengxing Fu, 2021-08-30 By comparison of late nineteenth century ghost stories between China and Britain this monograph traces the entangled dynamics between ghost story writing history making and the moulding of a gendered self Associated with times of anxiety groups under marginalisation and tensions with orthodox narratives ghost stories from two distinguished literary traditions are explored through the writings and lives of four innovative writers of this period namely Xuan Ding and Wang Tao in China and Vernon Lee and E Nesbit in Britain Through this cross cultural investigation the book illuminates how a gendered self is constructed in each culture and what cultural baggage and assets are brought into this construction It also ventures to sketch a common poetics underlying a literature of the anomaly that can be both destabilising and constructive subversive and coercive This book will be welcomed by the Gothic studies community as well as scholars working in the fields of women's writing nineteenth century British literature and Chinese literature
