The Unexpected Professor An Oxford Life In S:

The Unexpected Professor John Carey, 2014-03-18 Best known for his provocative take on cultural issues in The Intellectuals and the Masses and What Good Are the Arts John Carey describes in this warm and funny memoir the events that formed him an escape from the London blitz to an idyllic rural village army service in Egypt an open scholarship to Oxford and an academic career that saw him elected age 40 to Oxford's oldest English Literature professorship He frankly portrays the snobberies and rituals of 1950s Oxford but also his inspiring meetings with writers and poets Auden Graves Larkin Heaney and his forty year stint as a lead book reviewer for the Sunday Times This is a book about the joys of reading in effect an informal introduction to the great works of English literature But it is also about war and family and how an unexpected background can give you the insight and the courage to say the unexpected thing New Light on Tony

Harrison Edith Hall, 2019-01-03 New Light on Tony Harrison explores the lifetime achievement and influence of one of Britain's greatest living poets Tony Harrison It explores his extensive body of poems and his profound contribution to the literary world Lacan in the End Times Rob Weatherill, 2022-09-21 This book explores themes around the Father His absence in modern society and the decline of mental health The nature of this decline can be uniquely psychoanalytically theorised in both the corresponding ferocity of the internal object and exposure to the Real The first part of this book underlines what psychoanalysis and psi sciences continue to overlook who now provides what Lacan called the narrow footbridge between anxiety and death What terror must replace the father How can reality be stabilised once more The second part follows the atomised world as it turns towards extremism and utopian dreams in Ireland via Hanaghan's radical psychoanalysis in Levinasian ethics in Gnostic belief in an evil world and in the clinic of the death drive The conclusion turns finally to the God beyond God and the overwhelming evidence for God's presence in the world Lacan in the End Times will be of interest to psychoanalysts psychotherapists counsellors social workers and scholars in critical theory philosophy cultural theory literary theory and theology Austin Farrer: Oxford Warden, Scholar, Preacher Markus Bockmuehl, Stephen Platten, 2020-01-30 Frequently described as Anglicanism's most creative twentieth century theologian Austin Farrer's impact on Anglican theology is considerable Published to mark the 150th anniversary of Keble College of which Farrer was Warden this book brings together essays from leading scholars including Ian W Archer Mark Goodacre Michael F Lloyd Judith Wolfe and John Barton alongside four previously unpublished lectures by Farrer himself Demonising the Other Philip

Whitehead, 2018-01-31 Throughout history there has always been an other often based on culture race gender or class that has been demonised by the majority This attribution of negative features onto others affects everyone but Whitehead challenges the idea that this is an inevitable fact of life While looking at the historical criminalisation of the other and the subsequent modernising transformations in criminal justice and penal policy such as Big Society Whitehead also questions if this is the most effective way to dismantle the conditions of existence responsible for othering This important book not only looks for the origin of the other but also offers insights for a resolution that benefits society as a whole rather than just the powerful few
