Talk About Books David Peplow, 2016-02-25 Over the last two decades reading groups have become increasingly popular in the UK and the USA More and more people seem to be interested in sharing their reading experiences and hearing other readers discuss their views on books whether this is online through the mass media or in face to face contexts In light of this explosion in popularity of reading groups this ethnographic study focuses on several reading groups based across a variety of settings public libraries public houses and in readers homes A range of methods are used to investigate the practices of the individual readers and the groups including participant observation interviews and audio recordings of meetings Reading groups are found to be highly ritualized and potentially competitive places in which matters of identity and taste are often at stake The groups studied are conceptualized as communities of practice and the literary interpretations and evaluations offered within each group are shown to be a product of shared norms established by this group

The End of Time Gavin Extence, 2019-07-25 I loved TheEndofTime It is without doubt one of my top reads of 2019 I walked every mile with Zain Mohammed and Jesus Even when their epic journey seemed hopeless their story remained hopeful I've not had such an immersive and important read in a long time Carmel Harrington Thoroughly enjoyed TheEndOfTime It's an epic story of brotherly love courage and resilience A sensitively written compassionate and heart warming must read for this summer Sarah J Harris Beneath the stars on a stony beach stand two teenage brothers They are wearing lifejackets that are too big for them and their most precious belongings are sealed in waterproof bags tucked inside the rucksacks on their backs Turkey is behind them and Europe lies ahead a dark desperate swim away They don't know what will come next but they're about to meet a man who does He calls himself Jesus the Messiah He is barefoot dishevelled and smells strongly of alcohol And he doesn't believe in chance meetings He believes he has information about the future information that will change three lives forever
