

AP US History Vocabulary

The list below is all of the proper nouns pulled from the Curriculum Framework.

- Bolded words are taken directly from the Curriculum Framework verbiage and may be included on the AP exam.
- Italicized words are “illustrative examples” that can be used for historical evidence when supporting positions. These will not be on the AP exam since their use will vary by teacher.

Algeo, 1991 This book first published in 1992 is a unique repository of language use from 1941-91 In Our Own Words Jeffrey J. Shultz, Alison Cook-Sather, 2001 If educational reform is to succeed it must attend to the perspectives of students those most directly affected by schooling but least often consulted about its efficacy This is the premise of the first book both to feature student perspectives on school and to foreground student voices middle and high school students are the primary authors of the eight chapters collected in this volume aptly titled In Our Own Words Reflecting differences of gender racial and ethnic background and school context the student authors write passionately and eloquently about their experiences of and desires for school Through their explorations of topics as diverse as bilingual education class cutting teacher bias race relations in school what girls need from their education and innovative curricular models these student authors not only counter stereotypes of apathetic teenagers but also clearly identify what hinders and what supports their learning For both the insights offered and the freshness of the students voices this collection is a must read for anyone who has a stake in making school a place where students can and want to learn Tackling Tough Texts Sarah M. Lupo, Dan Reynolds, Christine Hardigree, 2024-11-20 Filling a crucial need this book provides concrete ways to support all students in grades 6-12 as they engage with rigorous grade level texts in English language arts science and social studies The authors offer fresh insights into adolescent reading and what makes a given text tough including knowledge demands text structure and complexity vocabulary and more Research based step by step strategies are presented for explicitly scaffolding these challenges in the context of purposeful learning activities that leverage students individual strengths and interests The book includes planning tips text selection guidelines sample text sets and vivid case studies from culturally and linguistically diverse classrooms Fourteen reproducible forms and handouts can be photocopied or downloaded for use with students Fighting Words Raymond Evans, 1999 With an open heart and inquiring intellect Raymond Evans sets out to uncover a past not studied in the school books of his youth Growing up in the 1950s he lived in a community devoid of Aboriginal presence It was an enclave of Welsh migrant families with all the rituals and traditions of a faraway Home His evolving historical consciousness was fired by the need to connect with these shadowy absences and to engage with his adopted homeland Interwoven with his personal journey is a revealing selection of race relations histories which cover a wide arena from the Aboriginal European conflicts of colonial Queensland to the anti Chinese riots of 1888 and civilian internment during World War I Evans also moves beyond frontier conflict into the long period of repressive government control of Aboriginal lives In writing on race gender and labour relations he illustrates how selective history can be by omitting the contribution of Aboriginal labourers men and women These form a critical bridge to understanding the complexities of race relations today
