The Therapeutic Community A Successful Approach For Treating Substance Abuses:

The Therapeutic Community Lewis Yablonsky,1989 A look at the therapeutic community discusses why and when individuals are sent to these communities who runs them what is unique about their approach to treatment and whether they work and contains testimony from recovering addicts about the therapeutic community The Opioid Epidemic and the Therapeutic Community Model Jonathan D. Avery,Kristopher A. Kast,2019-10-18 This book aims to explore the evidence supporting the therapeutic community TC modality as a uniquely effective approach to care of individuals living with opioid use disorder and other addictions and also to identify salient mediators of improved outcome including long term treatment and removal from the opioid associated environment The book includes multiple international perspectives and is designed for worldwide appeal for countries that have established some TCs with success those looking to improve care and those looking to build them for the first time Written by experts in addiction psychiatry and medicine this book describes the unique role of therapeutic communities in treating substance use disorders how the model has changed over time and adapted to diverse sociocultural contexts and systems of care and how the TC model may serve an important population in the context of the current opioid epidemic The chapters are written so as to be accessible for clinicians across specialties and professions The Opioid Epidemic and the Therapeutic Community Model is an excellent resource for all professionals interested in diverse and effective models of care to treat opioid use disorder and other addictions including addiction medicine specialists psychiatrists psychologists rehabilitation administrators hospitalists social workers public health workers students and the interested public

Substance Abuse Treatment for Women Offenders Patricia Kassebaum,1999 The Effectiveness of Social Interventions for Homeless Substance Abusers Gerald Stahler,Barry Stimmel,1995 This resource is devoted exclusively to reporting the results of rigorous research concerning substance abuse treatment outcomes for homeless persons The Effectiveness of Social Interventions for Homeless Substance Abusers reveals that while dropout rates are high for this population it is essential to develop treatment programs that not only focus on the addiction but also address the tangible needs of the homeless notably housing income support and employment

Treatment for Drug-exposed Women and Their Children ,1996 The Therapeutic Community Carole Harvey,2023-02-21 The Therapeutic Community Research and Practice brings together the diverse lens of these communities illuminating and challenging current practice models and research The book seeks to demonstrate the working collaboration between research based and practice based research as well as filling the gaps for professions in behavioral health neurobiology corrections and workforce development Each chapter explores how both environment and modality work together to change the quality of an individual s life The reader is provided with a foundation and introduction to the language of Democratic and Concept based TCs This book presents case studies protocols fidelity measures and emerging research to help readers incorporate applications into their own practice Provides a foundation including historical perspective to present day therapeutic communities Presents case studies protocols and fidelity measures including emerging research to help guide application towards a more unified practice Addresses future implications including modifications and or adaptations for expanding treatment settings and populations Women and Substance Abuse Harry K Wexler, Sally J Stevens, 2014-03-18 In Women and Substance Abuse Gender Transparency you ll see what can be done to aid women in some of the world s hardest hit substance abuse hubs including Rio De Janeiro Brazil Philadelphia Pennsylvania and New Haven Connecticut Filled with timely research and practical solutions this volume shows you what you can do to aid the tremendous and immediate need for specialized interventions in the lives of women Women and Substance Abuse considers many of the variables in the lives of women who abuse drugs race choice of drug HIV risk and drug treatment history and gives you line by line proof of the need for custom tailored harm reduction strategies for addicted women who are and who aren t engaged in drug treatment therapy In addition you ll see why frequent cocaine use current physical and sexual abuse and concerns relating to children can alter the success of therapies and treatments Overall this unique volume will broaden your understanding of the subject by covering gender differences in risk for gonorrhea infection risk factors for women who trade sex for drugs and money the role of physicians and prenatal care providers of substance abusing women how drug treatment programs can be more multifacted to include planning prenatal care and parenting skills prison based therapeutic communities long term residential treatment for women with children pregnant women and women without children For every unique woman with a drug problem there is a unique treatment Women and Substance Abuse turns away from the lost cause of blanket treatments and takes you into the world s slums and inner city ghettos where the faces of addiction are as diverse as the women who bear its debilitating burdens You ll see women s drug addiction for what it is a montage of suffering and pain that only individual and specialized care can cure NIDA Research Monograph ,1976

Autistic Adults at Bittersweet Farms Norman Giddan, Jane J Giddan, 2020-08-26 Autistic Adults at Bittersweet Farms is a touching view of an inspirational residential care program for autistic adolescents and adults This compelling book focuses on adult autism treated through the concepts used at Bittersweet Farms an 80 acre farm in northwest Ohio Through historical rationale for a therapeutic community a comparison between the Bittersweet Farms model and treatment settings in the United Kingdom specific treatments and training programs at Bittersweet Farms and staff parent and resident viewpoints the innovative program based on the premise that adults with autism continue to need special care and training throughout their lives is brought to life Divided into three sections Autistic Adults at Bittersweet Farms returns repeatedly to the concept behind the program molding autistic adults into contributing members of society in their own ways Section One includes a potpourri of information giving a glimpse of the range of models available for treatment and what makes each program a success Taking a closer look at program considerations within various community settings the second section examines behavior modification techniques in training autistic children and educating their parents As politics play an important role in developing an innovative care program like Bittersweet Farms the final section delves into regulations and funding for different types of residential care programs Ending on a very human and optimistic note section three closes with three personal accounts of life and work at Bittersweet Farms from a staff member a resident and a parent with each praising a different aspect of the total person care environment of Bittersweet Farms Occupational and physical therapists policymakers educators and parents of autistic children will be encouraged from reading this outstanding book
