Reading Underwater Wreckage Killian Quigley, 2022-12-15 Presenting a novel and needed theoretical model for interpreting shipwrecks and other drowned fragments the histories they tell and the futures they presage as junctures of artefact and ecofact human remains and emergent ecologies this book puts the environmental humanities and particularly multispecies studies in close conversation with literary studies history and aesthetic theory Earth's oceans hold the remains of as many as three million shipwrecks some thousands of years old Instead of approaching shipwrecks as either artefacts or ecofacts this book presents a third frame for understanding one inspired by the material dynamism of sea floor stuff As they become encrusted by oceanic matter some of it living some inanimate anthropic fragments participate in a distinctively submarine form of material relation That relation comprises a wide and sometimes incalculable array of things lives times and stories Drawing from several centuries of literary philosophical and scientific encounters with encrustations as well as from some of the innumerable encrusted art forms that inhabit the sea floor this book serves anyone in search of better ways to perceive describe and imagine submarine matters Visual Activism in the 21st Century Stephanie Hartle, Darcy White, 2022-07-28 The world is in crisis bringing activists and protesters onto the streets and into the public eye More than ever activism relies on spectacle and visibility in order to be noticed in the era of globalized capitalism and networked media At the same time a growing number of artists employ creative strategies to critique the establishment act in resistance and demand change Visual activism of this kind is not new but it is rapidly evolving This anthology presents 16 case studies of visual activism from across the globe providing an up to date picture of the impact of contemporary visual and art activism and combining a scholarly interrogation of visual activism with an examination of how it works in practice The case studies address a wide range of issues including human rights abuses state violence gender and sexuality racism migration and climate breakdown They examine a range of approaches from playful carnivalesque parades to extreme practices such as lip sewing and are drawn from a wide range of international contexts from Europe and the US to Iran India Pakistan Tunisia and China This diverse scope enables readers to consider examples comparatively noticing emerging trends and key differences to reveal how geopolitical and cultural factors play an important role in shaping activist practices This rich and timely collection provides a fresh perspective on the possibilities limitations and politics of visual activism as activists artists and curators respond to the changing world around them in this most uncertain of times Queer Tidalectics Emilio Amideo, 2021-06-15 In Queer Tidalectics Emilio Amideo investigates how Anglophone writers James Baldwin Jackie Kay Thomas Glave and Shani Mootoo employ the trope of fluidity to articulate a Black queer diasporic aesthetics Water recurs as a figurative and material site to express the Black queer experience within the diaspora a means to explore malleability and overflowing sexual gender and racial boundaries Amideo triangulates language the aquatic and affect to delineate a Black queer aesthetics one that uses an idiom of fluidity slipperiness and opacity to undermine and circumvent gender normativity and the racialized heteropatriarchy embedded in English The result is an outline of an ever expanding affective archive of experiential knowledge Amideo engages and extends the work of Black queer studies Oceanic studies ecocriticism phenomenology and new materialism through the theorizations of Sara Ahmed Omise eke Natasha Tinsley M Jacqui Alexander douard Glissant Jos Esteban Mu oz and Edward Kamau Brathwaite among others Ambitious in scope and captivating to read Queer Tidalectics brings Caribbean writers like Glissant and Brathwaite into queer literary analysis a major scholarly contribution My Oceans Christina Rivera, 2025-03-15 An urgent exploration of caring and mothering on a planet in crisis In a swell of sea linked essays Christina Rivera explores the kinship between marine animals humans and Earth s blue womb Rivera s investigative questions begin with the toxic burden of her body and spiral out to a grieving orca a hunted manta ray a pregnant sea turtle a spawning salmon an endling porpoise and the mother culture of sperm whales as she redefines what it means to mother and defend a collective future Braiding memoir with embodied climate science Rivera challenges that it is not anthropomorphism to feel deep connection to nonhuman species and proposes that gathering in collective grief is essential amid the sixth mass extinction For ecofeminists fans of Rachel Carson and Terry Tempest Williams and for anyone who feels themselves disintegrate in the presence of the sea My Oceans offers a timely and wondrous descent into the deep waters of interconnection in which we swim World Exhaustion in Latin American Literatures and Cultures / El agotamiento del mundo en las literaturas y culturas de América Latina Gesine Müller, Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado, 2025-03-31 The volume analyzes the implications of the world exhaustion concept that has emerged in a post global cultural context and whose effects are particularly salient in Latin American literatures and cultures This conceptual term aptly describes the ambivalent lived experiences of societies that have been marked by centuries of globalization and the artistic production that seeks to give form and meaning to these experiences

Humanities for the Environment Joni Adamson, Michael Davis, 2016-11-10 Humanities for the Environment or HfE is an ambitious project that from 2013-2015 was funded by a generous grant from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation The project networked universities and researchers internationally through a system of observatories This book collects the work of contributors networked through the North American Asia Pacific and Australia Pacific observatories Humanities for the Environment showcases how humanists are working to integrate knowledges from diverse cultures and ontologies and pilot new constellations of practice that are moving beyond traditional contemplative or reflective outcomes the book the essay towards solutions to the greatest social and environmental challenges of our time With the still controversial concept of the Anthropocene as a starting point for a widening conversation contributors range across geographies ecosystems climates and weather regimes moving from icy melting Arctic landscapes to the bleaching Australian Great Barrier Reef and from an urban pedagogical laboratory in Phoenix Arizona to Vatican City in Rome Chapters explore the ways in which humanists in collaboration with communities and disciplines across academia are responding to warming oceans disappearing islands collapsing fisheries evaporating reservoirs of water exploding bushfires and spreading radioactive contamination This interdisciplinary work will be of great interest to scholars in the humanities social sciences and sciences interested in interdisciplinary questions of environment and culture

Anthropology in the Anthropocene Christoph Antweiler, 2024-11-25 In this book anthropologist and geologist Christoph Antweiler shows that geology is a special namely historical natural science and is therefore relevant for a historically informed anthropology He argues that we do not only need a geologically informed cultural anthropology but conversely also an anthropologically oriented geology A comprehensive geology must include material human culture as a fundamental geological phenomenon In relation to cultural anthropology the author discusses the challenge the Anthropocene poses for cultural anthropology as a traditionally micro oriented social science The book discusses where the blind spots lie in the highly interdisciplinary discussion Common narratives are critically scrutinized The author argues for the need for a new discipline geoanthropology
