Helping Students Learn to Write Poetry Joyce C. Bumgardner,1997 Helping Students Learn to Write Poetry is a sensitive and straightforward guide designed for teachers of students in grades two through senior high school The book explains exactly how teachers can introduce the writing of non structured non rhyming poetry through the reading and appreciation of appropriate poems combined with techniques to jump start the student s own writing It points out that students will be liberated by the discovery that poetry does not have to rhyme and this will encourage them to explore the other aspects of language that make poetry unique The author provides a variety of techniques for developing students sensitivity to the sound and look of a poem and the use of vivid concrete language to convey their feelings into words

Writing and Understanding Poetry for Teachers and Students Suzanne Keyworth,Cassandra Robison,2015-02-19 Grounded in craft this book was composed on three premises That the study and modeling of great poems is integral to understanding poetry and learning to write poems that scaffolded learning builds a writer's and a reader's confidence and knowledge base and increases learning and that teachers and facilitators of poetry can and should build learning environments we call our hearts in a safe place Each chapter contains an introduction to a main focus new terms a model poem an explication short prompts heuristic to each chapter's focus and a model exercise Student poem samples are included in each chapter The last chapter discusses syllabi portfolios and alternate grading A Heart's Craft differs from other poetry how to books because it combines art with pedagogy in a unique and effective fashion Countdown to Poetry

Writing Steve Bowkett, 2009-06-02 Developing children's writing abilities boosts their confidence creates enjoyment and relevance in the task and cultivates a range of decision making and problem solving skills that can then be applied across the curriculum The Countdown series provides all the support you need in helping children to improve their prose poetry and non fiction writing This guide provides all the support you need in helping pupils to improve their poetry writing Countdown to Poetry Writing is a comprehensive and flexible resource that you can use in different ways including stand alone modules that cover all the essential aspects of writing a poem including word play use of metaphor rhyme and many others countdown flowchart providing an overview showing how modules are linked and how teachers can progress through them with the pupils photocopiable activity sheets for each module that show how to make the decisions and solve the problems that all writers face along the road from first idea to finished piece of work teachers notes for modules with tips and guidance including how modules can be used in the classroom links to other modules and curriculum links and advice on helping and guiding pupils in their writing a self study component so that children can make their own progress through the materials giving young writers a sense of independence in thinking about their work and offering built in scaffolding of tasks so that less experienced or less confident children get more support from the resource headers for each module showing where along the countdown path you are at that point In short Countdown to Poetry Writing saves valuable planning time and gives you all the flexibility you need teachers might want to utilise either the self study or countdown aspects of the book or simply dip into it for individual lesson activities to fit in with their own programmes of work
