Writing Spaces: Readings on Writings, Vol. 1 Charles Lowe, Pavel Zemliansky, Volumes in Writing Spaces

Readings on Writing offer multiple perspectives on a wide range of topics about writing much like the model made famous by Wendy Bishop's The Subject Is series. In each chapter authors present their unique views, insights, and strategies for writing by addressing the undergraduate reader directly. Drawing on their own experiences, these teachers as writers invite students to join in the larger conversation about developing nearly every aspect of the craft of writing. Consequently, each essay functions as a standalone text that can easily complement other selected readings in writing or writing intensive courses across the disciplines at any level.

Clayworks in Art Therapy David Henley, 2002. This book explores the history, theory, and techniques of claywork in eliciting therapeutic outcomes. Vignettes and case material explain and expand the text, which interweaves an appreciation of clay in art with many practical suggestions for its use in therapy. The author offers a new and holistic approach to claywork.
