Writing Studies Research in Practice Lee Nickoson, Mary P Sheridan, 2012-09-10 An essential reference for students and scholars exploring the methods and methodologies of writing research. What does it mean to research writing today? What are the practical and theoretical issues researchers face when approaching writing as they do? What are the gains or limitations of applying particular methods and what might researchers be overlooking? These questions and more are answered by the writing research field's leading scholars in Writing Studies Research in Practice: Methods and Methodologies. Editors Nickoson and Sheridan gather twenty chapters from leaders in writing research spanning topics from ethical considerations for researchers; quantitative methods and activity analysis; to interviewing and community-based and Internet research. While each chapter addresses a different subject, the volume as a whole covers the range of methodologies, technologies and approaches both old and new that writing researchers use and examines the ways in which contemporary writing research is understood, practiced and represented. An essential reference for experienced researchers and an invaluable tool to help novices understand research methods and methodologies. Writing Studies Research in Practice includes established methods and knowledge while addressing the contemporary issues, interests and concerns faced by writing researchers today.

Cultivating Wellbeing and Community through Writing in Academia Narelle Lemon, Aaron Bolzle, Malaika Santa Cruz, Rennie Saunders, 2025-11-18 This book revolutionises our understanding of academic and creative writing processes. This groundbreaking collection, the first of two volumes, explores how Shut Up Write (SUAW) sessions transform solitary writing into a powerful tool for community building, personal growth and enhanced wellbeing. Featuring 17 diverse chapters from global contributors, the book unveils SUAW's evolution from a simple productivity technique to a comprehensive approach for nurturing writer wellbeing. Organised into four key sections, it examines SUAW's role in fostering community, supporting academic development, transcending institutional boundaries and driving innovative wellbeing practices. From graduate students to established academics, university writing centres to national writers' retreats, this book offers a kaleidoscope of perspectives on implementing and adapting SUAW. It challenges the notion of writing as an isolating pursuit, instead presenting it as a collaborative, supportive endeavour that boosts creativity, builds resilience and cultivates a sense of belonging. This essential read provides both practical strategies and theoretical insights, making it invaluable for writing program administrators, academic developers, researchers and anyone interested in innovative approaches to supporting writers' wellbeing.
