China's literary and cultural production at the turn of the twenty first century is marked by heterogeneity plurality and diversity Given its complexity the literary cultural production of this period perhaps can be understood most productively as a response to a global modernity that has touched and transformed all aspects of contemporary Chinese reality The eleven essays in this book offer an introduction to some of the most important works published at the turn of the twenty first century In combining textual analysis of specific works with theoretical insights and in locating the texts in their sociocultural and socioeconomic contexts the essays explore key theoretical issues and intellectual concerns of the time They collectively draw a broad contour of new developments major trends and radical changes capturing the intellectual and cultural Zeitgeist of the age All in all these essays offer new theoretical approaches to and critical perspectives on contemporary Chinese literature and culture

Malaysian Crossings Cheow Thia Chan, 2022-12-27 Malaysian Chinese Mahua literature is marginalized on several fronts In the international literary space which privileges the West Malaysia is considered remote The institutions of modern Chinese literature favor mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong Within Malaysia only texts in Malay the national language are considered national literature by the state However Mahua authors have produced creative and thought provoking works that have won growing critical recognition showing Malaysia to be a laboratory for imaginative Chinese writing Highlighting Mahua literature's distinctive mode of evolution Cheow Thia Chan demonstrates that authors grasp of their marginality in the world Chinese literary space has been the impetus for rather than a barrier to aesthetic inventiveness He foregrounds the historical links between Malaysia and other Chinese speaking regions tracing how Mahua writers engage in the worlding of modern Chinese literature by navigating interconnected literary spaces Focusing on writers including Lin Cantian Han Suyin Wang Anyi and Li Yongping whose works craft signature literary languages Chan examines narrative representations of multilingual social realities and authorial reflections on colonial Malaya or independent Malaysia as valid literary terrain Delineating the inter Asian crossings of Mahua literary production physical journeys interactions among social groups and mindset shifts from the 1930s to the 2000s he contends that new perspectives from the periphery are essential to understanding the globalization of modern Chinese literature By emphasizing the inner diversities and connected histories in the margins Malaysian Crossings offers a powerful argument for remapping global Chinese literature and world literature

Transpacific Attachments Lily Wong, 2018-02-06 The figure of the Chinese sex worker who provokes both disdain and desire has become a trope for both Asian American sexuality and Asian modernity Lingering in the cultural imagination sex workers link sexual and cultural marginality and their tales clarify the boundaries of citizenship nationalism and internationalism In Transpacific Attachments Lily Wong studies the mobility and mobilization of the sex worker figure through transpacific media networks illuminating the intersectional politics of racial sexual and class structures Transpacific Attachments examines shifting depictions of Chinese sex workers in popular media from literature to film to new media that have circulated within the United States China and Sinophone communities from the early twentieth century to the present Wong explores Asian American writers articulation of transnational belonging early Hollywood's depiction of Chinese women as parasitic prostitutes and Chinese cinema's reframing the figure as a call for reform Cold War era use of prostitute and courtesan metaphors to question nationalist narratives and heteronormativity and images of immigrant brides against the backdrop of neoliberalism and the flows of transnational capital She focuses on the transpacific networks that reconfigure Chineseness complicating a diasporic framework of cultural authenticity While imaginations of a global community have long been mobilized through romantic erotic and gendered representations Wong stresses the significant role sex work plays in the constant restructuring of social relations Chineseness the figure of the sex worker shows is an affective product as much as an ethnic or cultural signifier

Wilson,2025-02-14 From disappearing coral reefs and ocean acidification to floating great garbage patches the Pacific Ocean is an ever present reminder of the Anthropocene In Oceanic Becoming Rob Wilson demonstrates that in the midst of the planetary crises the Pacific now faces it must be understood as interconnected to the other oceans Wilson frames this interconnection as Oceania reconceiving the world oceans as tied to sites of urban dwelling and life sustenance from Boston to Brisbane that are increasingly threatened by late capitalism Confronting these threats Wilson argues requires a project he theorizes as worlding a process of world making and world remaking across Oceania that would create new forms of belonging and connection at local regional and transnational levels Wilson shows how Oceania is not just a site of peril but one charged with emergent literary and social formations that can provide the basis for new solidarities futures and ecologies
