Queens of Print Rebecca Johnke, 2019-11-08 For fifty years our most powerful popular culture influencers have been the high powered editors of mass market women's magazines like The Australian Women's Weekly, Woman's Day, New Idea and the now defunct Dolly, Cleo and Cosmopolitan. It is difficult to overstate the influence that these women have had in shaping popular ideas and attitudes, feminism and femininity in Australia via the pages of their magazines. In these interviews they describe their lives and careers in a medium that is part of our publishing heritage. Queens of Print is a tribute to the most influential and iconic women in Australian women's magazines. It is a snapshot of a rapidly changing industry where print is supposedly dead and media have been disrupted. This book looks back but also forward to consider what a magazine might be and what a magazine editor might do in future decades.

The Swimsuit Christine Schmidt, 2013-07-18 The Swimsuit Fashion from Poolside to Catwalk documents the modern swimsuit's trajectory from men's underwear and circus performance wear to its unique niche in world fashion. It emphasizes the relationship between fashion, media, celebrity, sport and the cultivation of the modern body. This fascinating book provides an historical, sociological and cultural context in which to view how the swimsuit and Australia, the country that significantly influenced its modern form, migrated from the cultural and colonial periphery to the centre of international attention. In addition, the book offers new perspectives on national histories of the swimsuit and investigates how traditional European fashion centers have opened up to new markets and modes of living, bringing together influences from around the globe. The Swimsuit is essential reading for students, scholars and the general reader interested in fashion, popular culture, history, media, sport and gender studies.

The Cinema of Sofia Coppola Suzanne Ferriss, 2021-01-28 The Cinema of Sofia Coppola provides the first comprehensive analysis of Coppola's oeuvre that situates her work broadly in relation to contemporary artistic, social and cultural currents. Suzanne Ferriss considers the central role of fashion in its various manifestations to Coppola's films, exploring fashion's primacy in every cinematic dimension: in film narrative, production, costume and sound design, cinematography, marketing, distribution and auteur branding. She also explores the theme of celebrity, including Coppola's own director star persona and argues that Coppola's auteur status rests on an original and distinct visual style derived from the filmmaker's complex engagement with photography and painting. Ferriss analyzes each of Coppola's six films, categorizing them in two groups: films where fashion commands attention (Marie Antoinette, The Beguiled and The Bling Ring) and those where clothing and material goods do not stand out ostentatiously but are essential in establishing characters' identities and relationships (The Virgin Suicides, Lost in Translation and Somewhere). Throughout, Ferriss draws on approaches from scholarship on fashion, film, visual culture, art history, celebrity and material culture to capture the complexities of Coppola's engagement with fashion, culture and celebrity. The Cinema of Sofia Coppola is beautifully illustrated with color images from her films as well as artworks and advertising artefacts.
