To Live And Drink In L A:

Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana Joshua Clegg Caffery, 2013-11-05 Alan Lomax's prolific sixty-four year career as a folklorist and musicologist began with a trip across the South and into the heart of Louisiana's Cajun country during the height of the Great Depression. In 1934 his father John then curator of the Library of Congress's Archive of American Folk Song took an eighteen year old Alan and a 300 pound aluminum disk recorder into the rice fields of Jennings along the waterways of New Iberia and behind the gates of Angola State Penitentiary to collect vestiges of African American and Acadian musical tradition. These recordings now serve as the foundational document of indigenous Louisiana music. Although widely recognized by scholars as a key artifact in the understanding of American vernacular music, most of the recordings by John and Alan Lomax during their expedition across the central southern fringe of Louisiana were never transcribed or translated, much less studied in depth. This volume presents for the first time a comprehensive examination of the 1934 corpus and unveils a multifaceted story of traditional song in one of the country's most culturally dynamic regions. Through his textual and comparative study of the songs contained in the Lomax collection, Joshua Clegg Caffery provides a musical history of Louisiana that extends beyond Cajun music and zydeco to the rural blues, Irish and English folk songs, play party songs, slave spirituals and traditional French folk songs that thrived at the time of these recordings. Intimate in its presentation of Louisiana folklife and broad in its historical scope, Traditional Music in Coastal Louisiana honors the legacy of John and Alan Lomax by retrieving these musical relics from obscurity and ensuring their understanding and appreciation for generations to come. Includes Complete transcriptions of the 1934 Lomax field recordings in southwestern Louisiana. Side by side translations from French to English. Photographs from the 1934 field trip and biographical details about the performers.

Spiers and Surenne's French and English pronouncing dictionary Alexander Spiers, 1865 A Tiny House on Wheels Enni Amanda, 2020-06-06 A sweet funny romance set in rural New Zealand. Nina is 36, single and running out of time to start a family. Leaving behind her advertising job and the city, she moves into a small coastal town ready to grow organic veggies, de-stress and preserve her fertility. Now she only has to find the right guy and it can't be her odd new neighbour who doesn't want kids. No matter how hot he is. This time Nina is determined to follow the plan, not her heart. Jay is used to solitary life. After his father's death, he tries to keep the farm running even if he's more comfortable with the veggies than people. But who needs social skills? In the backside of Raglan, nothing ever happens. Until a cute Finnish blonde moves into the neighbouring lot in a ridiculous tiny house. Can Jay work out his issues and take a chance on the most exotic thing that's ever walked into his life? Work, life, love and all those other big questions that vex us are tackled in this humorous and thought-provoking book which will stay with you long after you reach the end. The Rough Guide to Mexico Daniel Jacobs, John Fisher, 2010-06-01 The Rough Guide to Mexico is the essential travel guide to this vast extraordinarily varied country.
