socialist state program of down to the villages movements during the 1960s and 1970s What then was the special significance of going to the countryside before that era Going to the Countryside deals with the cultural representations and practices of this practice between 1915 and 1965 focusing on individual homecoming rural reconstruction revolutionary journeys to Yan an the revolutionary going down to the people as well as going to the frontiers and rural hometowns for socialist construction As part of the larger discourses of enlightenment revolution and socialist industrialization going to the countryside entailed new ways of looking at the world and ordinary people brought about new experiences of space and time initiated new means of human communication and interaction generated new forms of cultural production revealed a fundamental epistemic shift in modern China and ultimately created a new aesthetic social and political landscape As a critical response to the urban turn in the past few decades this book brings the rural back to the central concern of Chinese cultural studies and aims to bridge the city and the countryside as two types of important geographical entities which have often remained as disparate scholarly subjects of inquiry in the current state of China studies Chinese modernity has been characterized by a dual process that created problems from the vast gap between the city and the countryside but simultaneously initiated constant efforts to cope with the gap personally collectively and institutionally The process of crossing two distinct geographical spaces was often presented as continuous explorations of various ways of establishing the connectivity interaction and relationship of these two imagined geographical entities Going to the Countryside argues that this new body of cultural productions did not merely turn the rural into a constantly changing representational space most importantly the rural has been constructed as a distinct modern experiential and aesthetic realm characterized by revolutionary changes in human conceptions and sentiments Film Year Book ,1922 Real Communication Dan O'Hair,Mary Wiemann,2008-12-29 This competency based hybrid text links communication theory to everyday skills and integrates coverage of intercultural communication and ethical issues into every chapter giving students an opportunity to put what they learn into practice Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Abuse and Power Carter Page,2020-08-25 The chickens are coming home to roost for the corrupt officials mainstream media and Democratic operatives who ruined the life of an innocent American in an attempt to subvert our democracy Carter Page the man at the center of one of the worst scandals in our country s history reveals how our nation s top law enforcement officials abused their power and framed an innocent American citizen in their effort to take down Donald Trump Page s gripping account which shows that the rot goes deeper than anyone realized names the men and women who tried to pull off a coup and didn t care who got hurt
