

The background of the slide is a vibrant tropical sunset. The sky is a deep orange with some darker, wispy clouds. A large palm tree stands in the center, its fronds silhouetted against the bright light. Other palm trees and tropical foliage are visible in the foreground and to the sides, also in silhouette. The overall mood is warm and serene.

World Mythology David Adams Leeming, 2022 Deity Creation The flood The trickster The hero World mythology and cultural myths Pilgrimage Ian S. McIntosh, 2020-05-11 This is a book about pilgrimage peace building and being here in the future Sacred journeys are by far the most peaceful mass rituals that humankind has yet devised for itself Can these journeys contribute to ending the poverty racial inequality and intractable conflict so common on the world stage today In a radical rethinking of the nature and definition of pilgrimage anthropologist Ian McIntosh describes this ancient practice as a handy tool in the peace builder s toolkit In a range of case studies he shows how pilgrimage provides geographically and historically separated peoples with a strong sense of their membership in a global community facing global challenges The text includes autobiographical accounts of the author s experience of pilgrimage in Aboriginal Australia Communist China multi faith Sri Lanka and the embattled Gaza Strip There are also academic papers that advance the proposed link between pilgrimage and peace building from Canada India Kenya Pakistan Russia and elsewhere The common thread in all these sacred journeys is a vision of peace justice and sustainability We are all in this together For humankind to survive on this planet pilgrimage in all its rich diversity will undoubtedly play a critical role Aboriginal Art and Australian Racial Hegemony Abraham Bradfield, 2023-07-31 This book explores the complexities of Indigenous and non Indigenous relations in contemporary Australia It unpacks the continuation of a pervasive colonial consciousness within settler colonial settings but also provokes readers to confront their own habits of thought and action Through presenting a reflexive narrative that draws on the author s encounters with Indigenous artists and their artwork knowledge stories and lived experiences this provocative and insightful work encourages readers to consider what decolonising means to them It presents a compelling and relevant argument that calls for a reorientation of dominant discourses fixed within Eurocentric frameworks whilst also addressing the deep complexities and challenges of living within intercultural settler colonial settings where different views and perspectives clash and complement one another Walkabout , 1958 The Oxford Handbook of Black Horror Film Robin R. Means Coleman, Novotny Lawrence, 2024 Since the release of Jordan Peele s Academy Award winning horror hit Get Out 2017 interest in Black horror films has erupted The Oxford Handbook of Black Horror Film presents expansive scholarship about Blackness expanding the ways in which researchers critics and fans see and make meaning of Black experiences Humankind's Fear of Death Michael Higgins, 2013-07 The book developed from my gradual realization that spirituality was a normal characteristic in the human race but that in recent millennia it had regressed in the everyday awareness of most people especially those belonging to what they regarded as a cultural society Only so called primitive peoples retained a spiritual outlook My book describes how this has come about especially the negative influence of organized religions on individual spirituality and the resulting deterioration in most human societies Finally I suggest how mankind can become again spiritual during their Earth lives Michael Higgins Australian Aboriginal Studies , 2003

Transnational Australian Cinema Olivia Khoo, Belinda Smaill, Audrey Yue, 2013-03-08 To date there has been little sustained attention given to the historical cinema relations between Australia and Asia. This is a significant omission given Australia's geopolitical position and the place Asia has held in the national imaginary oscillating between threat and opportunity. Many accounts of Australian cinema begin with the 1970s film revival placing Asian Australian cinema within a post revival schema of multicultural or diasporic cinema and ignoring Asian Australian connections prior to the revival. Transnational Australian Cinema charts a history of Asian Australian cinema encompassing the work of diasporic Asian filmmakers, films featuring images of Asia and Asians, films produced by Australians working in Asia's film industries or addressed at Asian audiences, and Asian films that use Australian resources including locations and personnel. Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach, the book considers diasporic Asian histories, the impact of government immigration and film policies on representation, and the new aesthetic styles and production regimes created by filmmakers who have forged links both through roots and routes with Asia. This expanded history of Asian Australian cinema allows for a renewed discussion of so-called dormant periods in the nation's film history. In this respect, the mapping of an expanded history of cinema practices contributes to our broader aim to rethink the transnationalism of Australian cinema.

Aborigines Virginia Luling, 1979 Introduces the natural environment, history, culture, and day to day life of the Aborigines of Australia.

Imagined Landscapes Jane Stadler, Peta Mitchell, Stephen Carleton, 2015-12-21 An analysis of the depiction of Australia's landscape in its films and literature. Imagined Landscapes teams geocritical analysis with digital visualization techniques to map and interrogate films, novels, and plays in which space and place figure prominently. Drawing upon A Cultural Atlas of Australia, a database-driven interactive digital map that can be used to identify patterns of representation in Australia's cultural landscape, the book presents an integrated perspective on the translation of space across narrative forms and pioneers new ways of seeing and understanding landscape. It offers fresh insights on cultural topography and spatial history by examining the technical and conceptual challenges of georeferencing fictional and fictionalized places in narratives. Among the items discussed are Wake in Fright, a novel by Kenneth Cook adapted iconically to the screen and recently onto the stage; the Australian North as a mythic space; spatial and temporal narrative shifts in retellings of the story of Alexander Pearce, a convict who gained notoriety for resorting to cannibalism after escaping from a remote Tasmanian penal colony; travel narratives and road movies set in Western Australia; and the challenges and spatial politics of mapping spaces for which there are no coordinates. It will likely be the indispensable touchstone for any future work in these areas with respect to Australian cultural studies.

Robert T Tally, Texas State University. Definitely original in its approach since it combines a conceptual approach with a more applied one. The book is a serious contribution to the field of mapping spatial narratives and to a better understanding of the production and spatial structure of fictional places.

S bastien Caquard, Concordia University

linguists in order to describe and document their traditional life style for the protection and safeguarding of their established knowledge skills languages and beliefs These communities are engaging and adapting rapidly to the changing circumstances partly caused by post modernisation and the process of globalization These have led them to aspire to better living standards as well as preserving their uniqueness approaches to environment close proximity to social structures and communities For at least the last two decades patterns of increased economic activity by indigenous peoples in many countries have been viewed to be significantly on the rise Indigenous People and Economic Development reveals some of the characteristics of this economic activity coloured by the unique regard and philosophy of life that indigenous people around the world have The successes difficulties and obstacles to economic development their solutions and innovative practices in business all of these elements based on research findings are discussed in this book and offer an inside view of the dynamics of the indigenous societies which are evolving in a globalised and highly interconnected contemporary world

Representing Aboriginal Childhood Joanne Faulkner, 2023-02-28 This book critically investigates the ways in which Aboriginal children and childhood figure in Australia's cultural life to mediate Australians ambivalence about the colonial origins of the nation as well as its possible post colonial futures Engaging with representations in literature film governmental discourse and news and infotainment media it shows how ways of representing Aboriginal children and childhood serve a national project of representing settler Australian values through the forgetting of colonial violence Analysing the ways in which certain negative aspects of Australian nationhood are concealed rendered invisible and repressed through practices of representing Aboriginal children and childhood it challenges accepted shared understandings regarding Australian ness and settler colonial sovereignty Through an innovative interdisciplinary approach that engages critical theory post colonial theory literary studies history psychoanalysis and philosophy Representing Aboriginal Childhood responds to urgent questions that pivot on the role of the Indigenous child within settler nation state formations As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and social geography collective memory politics and cultural studies

Touring Performance and Global Exchange 1850-1960 Gilli Bush-Bailey, Kate Flaherty, 2021-12-30 This collection uncovers connections and coincidences that challenge the old stories of pioneering performers who crossed the Atlantic and Pacific oceans from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth century It investigates songlines drama opera music theatre dance and circus removing traditional boundaries that separate studies of performance and celebrating difference and transformation in style intention and delivery Well known or obscure travelling performers faced dangers at sea and hazardous journeys across land Their tracks made in pursuit of fortune and fame intersected with those made by earlier storytellers in search for food Touring Performance and Global Exchange takes a fresh look at such tracks the material remains demonstrating that moving performance does far more than transfer repertoires and people it transforms them Touring performance has too often been conceived in diasporic terms as a fixed product radiating out from a cultural centre This collection maps different patterns ones that comprise reversed flows cross currents and continually proliferating centres of meaning in complex networks of global exchange This collection will be of great interest to scholars and students in theatre music drama studies and cultural history      Aboriginal Art Donna Leslie,2008 Donna Leslie a Post doctoral Research Fellow at The University of Melbourne sets out to demonstrate how Aboriginal art has questioned the assimilationist policies which prevailed in Australia from the 1930s to the 1970s Her rigorous and sustained argument supported by an impressive array of important visual images reveals an extensive grasp of issues relating not only to the practice and history of art but also in fields of anthropology ethnology and sociology The book is a rare presentation of aspects of the history of Aboriginal art from an Aboriginal perspective and provides fresh ways of understanding Aboriginal experience While the author acknowledges the problems faced by Aboriginal peoples particularly those associated with the former policy of assimilation her message is positive and encourages a deepening understanding of Aboriginal art culture and peoples in the spirit of reconciliation Moreover she addresses the development of Aboriginal art in the modern Australian city as well as in the more traditional environment of the land      Have You Seen? David Thomson,2008 Including masterpieces oddities guilty pleasures and classics with just a few disasters Cover
