The Hysterical Sublime Matthew Flisfeder,2025-06-26 Developing the concept of the hysterical sublime first theorised by Fredric Jameson to challenge posthumanist perspectives on the Anthropocene this book facilitates the rethinking of universal and dialectical humanism as concepts for grappling with 21st century capitalism In recent years posthumanist theories have been concerned with the overlapping dilemmas of global climate change digital automation and artificial intelligence corresponding to the age of the Anthropocene Matthew Flisfeder explores how the fear of technology becomes for Jameson a substitute for the fears of the capitalist system and shows that posthumanism displaces such fears onto the figure of the human and anthropocentrism Drawing on Hegelian Lacanian theory the book argues that to rethink dialectical humanism requires moving past the historicist versions of Marxist humanism that imagine a complete reconciliation with non human nature that includes a process of dis alienation Flisfeder also studies posthumanism s performative contradiction of dismissing humanism while at the same time depending on the very concepts that constitute the core of humanist thought freedom equality responsibility and autonomy Through the concept of the hysterical sublime

this book argues that not only is anthropocentrism and humanism the unconscious core of posthumanist theory emancipatory politics must take ownership of this perspective and renew universalist and dialectical humanism as the core of the political project resistant to capitalism and the Capitalocene

The Politics of Private Transnational Governance by Contract

A. Claire Cutler, Thomas Dietz, 2017-03-31 This edited volume provides critical reflections on the interplay between politics and law in an increasingly transnationalized global political economy It focuses specifically on the emergence and operation of new forms of governance that are developing through a variety of transnational contractual practices institutions and laws in multiple sectors and areas of economic activity Interdisciplinary in nature the volume includes contributions from law political science sociology and international politics with the focus on the political foundations of transnational contract being both original and path breaking Placing power at the center of the analysis the volume reveals the heterogeneous landscape of contemporary law making and the different kinds of politics giving rise to this form of global ordering As the contributors note this new form of governance requires a different type of political theory and legal theory with the volume advancing understanding of the analytical theoretical and normative dimensions of private transnational governance by contract making a valuable contribution to new theory in law and politics It will be of great interest to students and academics in law political science international relations international political economy and sociology as well as international commercial arbitration lawyers trade and investment lawyers and legal firms
