Walking Through The Jungle Resources:

Let's All Play Activities for Communication, Language and Literacy Jenny Roe, 2009-03-10 Let's All Play is packed with enjoyable easy to do literacy activities for young children. It provides fun stimulating and inclusive ideas suitable for a range of children including those with special educational needs SEN and those learning English as an additional language EAL. Topics covered include Food Glorious Food Opposites Houses and Homes All About Me Animals. This excellent resource is for anyone working with Nursery Reception or Pre school children in any early years setting.

Resources for Learning Mentors Pam Allen, 2007-10-29 Includes CD Rom. In this new book Pam Allen provides a valuable resource designed to help develop preventative approaches for learning mentors to work and deal effectively with the emotional needs of vulnerable young people. The resources included will help young people to build their capacity to set realistic targets, to build a positive view of their strengths and abilities, to improve skills in communication and problem solving, to build their capacity to manage strong feelings. There are comprehensive facilitator notes, activities and materials to provide a general course on mental health and wellbeing as well as sections on working with vulnerable young people, teenage girls and white working class boys. This accessible book will help ensure that children and young people can learn ways to feel safe and valued and to have a sense of self efficacy.

Jamboree Activity Guide B Jackie Holderness, Neil Griffiths, 2005

Creative Activities for the Early Years Stella Skinner, 2007-02-22 An excellent resource for all those working with young children, jam packed with exciting inspirational activities that encourage young children to nurture their creativity and imagination while helping practitioners to facilitate what children do naturally. It is a book that celebrates and encourages original thought and action to support learning through exploration and investigation, recognising that creativity is about representing one's own image and not reproducing someone else's. Early Years Educator Inspirational. This book is easy to read, refreshing and exciting and I would recommend it to all those working with young children. It is also useful for students clearly articulating the reasons for providing well organised child initiated creative opportunities rather than adult directed activities.

Nursery World It is an interesting and informative manual aimed at those who work with children in the 3-5 years age range and is therefore most suited to anyone in a Pre School or Day Nursery setting and could also be valuable to a Reception Teacher. Overall I found this to be a very useful book.

National Childminding Association Packed full of exciting ideas and powerful visual aids, this book will help those working with young children to encourage and nurture their creativity and imagination. The book takes examples of what has worked in an early years setting and transfers these inspirational activities onto the page. The book includes practical activities in Art, Dance and Music and ideas on how to link them together, advice on how to make the most of music, lighting, space and nursery resources, showing how the work supports the Foundation Stage Curriculum, ideas for cross curricular work, suggestions for recording children's progress, advice on how to choose materials and a list of specialist suppliers. Everyone involved in working with young children should read this book. Nursery practitioners, early years teachers
