Voice and Vision Mick Hurbis-Cherrier, 2012-11-12 Voice Vision is a comprehensive manual for the independent filmmakers and film students who want a solid grounding in the tools techniques and processes of narrative film in order to achieve their artistic vision This book includes essential and detailed information on relevant film and digital video tools a thorough overview of the filmmaking stages and the aesthetic considerations for telling a visual story The ultimate goal of this book is to help you develop your creative voice while acquiring the solid practical skills and confidence to use it Unlike many books that privilege raw technical information or the line producing aspects of production Voice Vision places creativity visual expression and cinematic ideas front and center After all every practical decision a filmmaker makes like choosing a location an actor a film stock a focal length a lighting set up an edit point or a sound effect is also an expressive one and should serve the filmmaker's vision. Every decision from the largest conceptual choices to the smallest practical solutions has a profound impact on what appears on the screen and how it moves an audience. In Practice sidebars throughout connect conceptual aesthetic and technical issues to their application in the real world. Some provide a brief analysis of a scene or technique from easily rentable films which illustrate how a specific technology or process is used to support a conceptual narrative or aesthetic choice. Others recount common production challenges encountered on real student and professional shoots which will inspire you to be innovative and resourceful when you are solving your own filmmaking challenges.

Hamrāh Bā Bād Abbas Kiarostami, 2001. This bilingual edition of recent verse by the celebrated Iranian filmmaker Abbas Kiarostami, award-winning director of such films as Close Up and Taste of Cherry, includes English translations of more than two hundred crystalline haiku-like poems together with their Persian originals. The translators noted Persian literature scholars Ahmad Karimi Hakkak and Michael Beard contribute an illuminating introduction to Kiarostami's poetic enterprise, examining its relationship to his unique cinematic corpus and to the traditions of classic and contemporary Persian poetry. Of interest to enthusiasts of cinema and literature alike, Walking with the Wind, the second volume in Harvard Film Archive's series Voices and Visions in Film, sheds light on a contemporary master who transforms simple fragments of reality into evocative narrative landscapes.

Documentary Voice & Vision Kelly Anderson, Martin Lucas, 2016-03-31. Learn the creative and technical essentials of documentary filmmaking with Documentary Voice Vision. This comprehensive work combines clear up-to-date technical information, production techniques, and gear descriptions with an understanding of how technical choices can create meaning and serve a director's creative vision. Drawing on the authors' years of experience as documentary filmmakers and on interviews with a range of working professionals in the field, the book offers concrete and thoughtful guidance through all stages of production, from finding and researching ideas to production, editing, and distribution. Documentary Voice Vision will help students and aspiring filmmakers think through research and story structure, ethics, legal issues, and aesthetics, as well as techniques from camera handling to lighting, sound recording, and editing. The book explores a full range of production styles from expository to impressionistic to observational and provides an overview of contemporary distribution options. Documentary Voice Vision is a companion text to Mick Hurbis Cherrier's Voice Vision: A Creative Approach to Narrative Film and DV Production and employs a similar style and approach to that classic text. This text is written from the perspective of documentary filmmakers and includes myriad examples from the world of non-fiction filmmaking. A robust companion website featuring additional resources and interactive figures accompanies the book.

Out of Asia Bert Cardullo, 2008. Out of Asia: The Films of Akira Kurosawa, Satyajit Ray, Abbas Kiarostami, and Zhang Yimou is a collection of interviews with and essays about the four filmmakers who introduced the cinema of their respective countries to the West: Kurosawa (Japan) and Ray (India) in the 1950s; Kiarostami (Iran) and Zhang (China) in the 1980s. Kurosawa and Ray were post-World War II phenomena, as the new breed of American cinephiles demanded more contact with Asian cultures of which they had known little until the 1940s Kiarostami and Zhang for their part are both post revolutionary filmmakers whose films have helpfully introduced Americans to two Eastern cultures with which the American government has long had and continues to have a problematic relationship As a whole then Out of Asia documents an alternative to Western brands of cinema even as these four foreign directors with the possible exception of Kiarostami integrate Western forms styles and genres into their own native traditions As such these artists could be said to represent a global filmmaking perspective that now more than ever this world and the American nation can use Each of the interviews in this volume is accompanied by an overview of the director s career or an essay on representative films by him In addition Out of Asia is preceded by a contextualizing introduction it is followed by filmographies a bibliography and an index and the book is interspersed with photographs of the four directors in question or stills from their films There are books devoted to individual filmmakers like Kurosawa Ray Kiarostami and Zhang but until Out of Asia there has not been one that treats representatives of four national cinemas from their own point of view as well as from an international perspective

A Social History of Iranian Cinema, Volume 4 Hamid Naficy, 2011 In the fourth and final volume of A History of Iranian Cinema Hamid Naficy looks at the extraordinary efflorescence in Iranian film and other visual media since the Islamic Revolution

The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins, 2004-03-24 American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message

Formal Matters in Contemporary Latino Poetry F. Aldama, 2016-01-26 Today's Latino poetry scene is incredibly vibrant. With original interviews, this is the first meditation on the thematic features of such poetry. Looking at how Julia Alvarez, Rhina Espaillat, Rafael Campo, and C. Dale Young use structures such as meter, rhyme, and line break, this study identifies a poetics of formalist Latino poetry. Video Source Book, 2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies, entertainment, general interest, education, sports, recreation, fine arts, health, science, business, industry, children, juvenile, how-to, instruction. School Library Journal, 1998 Film Composers Directory, 2000

As the Cold Wind Blows Mark Jones, 2011-06-01 Description: The sickening murders of two close friends, Imelda Hart and Mabel Bright, begin a terrifying and sinister journey into the strange happenings of a small English town where sleep can mean torture, extreme psychological torment, and ultimately death for millions of other people worldwide. To fall asleep means to be watched by those who have appeared from nowhere and sleep when their work is done. The long black deathly cars patrol the streets, now owned by this group of unknown evil and crazy men called the Masters. On the streets, their drones, powered by thoughts and callous orders, collect wandering spirits and still wide awake souls for the nightmarish world they have created. Min Ritchie and their friends find themselves caught up in this seemingly unending hell. The Masters can take you when you are awake and also while you sleep in a place where the real world and the imaginary one collide with devastating consequences. The Masters and drones are symbols, symbols of something else deep within the subconscious mind, creating a strange scenario that just won't let anyone go, not today, tomorrow, or at any time in the future, whether in this world or the next. About the Author: Born in Wrexham, North Wales, without a plan, but as it sometimes does, destiny came calling. It put a pen in Mark Jones' hand, and many stories in his mind. Where this particular idea came from is a mystery as big as why it was given to him, but he hopes others enjoy the story as much as he enjoyed writing it. Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1998, 1998 Lars von Trier's Cinema Rebecca Ver Straten-McSparran, 2021-11-11 This book offers a bold and dynamic examination of Lars von Trier's cinema by interweaving philosophy and theology with close attention to aesthetics through style and narrative. It explores the prophetic voice of von Trier's films, juxtaposing them with Ezekiel's prophecy and Ricoeur's symbols of evil, myth, and hermeneutics of revelation. The films of Lars von Trier are categorized as extreme cinema, inducing trauma and emotional rupture rarely paralleled while challenging audiences to respond in new ways. This volume argues that the spiritual/biblical content of the films holds a key to understanding von Trier's oeuvre of excess. Spiritual conflict is the mechanism that unpacks the films' notorious excess with explosive centrifugal force. By confronting the spectator with spiritual conflict through evil, von Trier's films truthfully and prophetically expose the spectator's complicity in personal and structural evil, forcing self-examination through theological themes analogous to the prophetic voice of the transgressive Hebrew prophet Ezekiel, his prophecy, and its form of delivery. Placed in context with the prophetic voices of Dante, Milton, Dostoyevsky, O'Connor, and Tarkovsky, this volume offers a theoretical framework beyond von Trier. It will be of great interest
