Whatever Love Is Love Questioning The Labels We Give Ourselves:

Whatever...Love Is Love Maria Bello,2016-01-26 The acclaimed actress and dedicated activist shares her personal journey of discovery and destroys outdated ideas about partnership love and family that will resonate with anyone in an unconventional life situation Actress and activist Maria Bello made waves with her essay Coming Out as a Modern Family in the New York Times popular Modern Love column in which she recalled telling her son that she had fallen in love with her best friend a woman and her relief at his easy and immediate acceptance with the phrase Whatever Mom love is love She made a compelling argument about the fluidity of partnerships and how families today come in a myriad of designs In her first book Bello broadens her insights as she examines the idea of partnership in every woman s life and her own She examines the myths that so many of us believe about partnership that the partnership begins when the sex begins that partnerships are static that you have to love yourself before you can be loved and turns them on their heads Bello explores how many different relationships romantic platonic spiritual familial educational helped define her life She encourages women to realize that the only labels we have are the ones we put on ourselves and the best happiest partnerships are the ones that make your life better even if they don t fit the mold of typical Throughout this powerful and engaging read Bello shares intimate stories and lessons on how she has come to discover her happiest self accept who she is and live honestly and freely and tells the stories of those who came to her after her Times columns grateful that someone gave voice to their life choices Whatever Love Is Love is not a memoir about an actress It is a frank raw and honest book about the way every woman questions the roles she plays in love work and life filled with wisdom questions and insights relevant to us all

Lectures on the Psychology of Women Joan C. Chrisler,Carla Golden,2018-01-12 Twenty two distinct essays prepared especially for Lectures on the Psychology of Women present readers with topics often not covered in depth in standard texts. Essays are written by feminist psychologists all of whom are active and committed teachers and researchers within the psychology of women. More than half the lectures are new to this edition and the others have been significantly updated to include recent research and contemporary examples. The book's organization aligns with core texts making it ideal supplemental reading. However, each lecture stands alone so instructors can assign readings to meet their own course needs. Part I on the diversity of women includes lectures on women with disabilities, social class, immigration, relational race, privilege, aging, sexual fluidity, and mothering. Part II delves into body images and female embodiment with lectures covering such topics as the sexualization of girls, PMS, weight and body image, media representations of Black women, genital anxieties, and the hairless ideal. Part III addresses women's physical and mental health with lectures on depression, multicultural therapy, Black women's health in the U.S., and institutional corruption in psychiatry. Part IV focuses on discrimination, control, and violence against women with lectures on slut shaming, online gender harassment, and microaggressions. Part V on social justice and activism includes lectures on awareness of intersectional identities and the relation between the psychology of women and feminist activism.

The Relativity of Deviance John Curra, 2016-01-25 This engaging and informative book by award-winning sociologist and criminologist John Curra offers a valuable perspective on attitudes and behaviors labeled as deviant. The Relativity of Deviance Fourth Edition explores the meanings and constructions of social deviance and social reactions to it. He answers such questions as: What is deviance? What comprises deviant behavior? How are deviants treated? How is deviance socially constructed and socially sustained? Why is the same attitude, behavior, or condition praised in one situation and condemned in another? Through insightful and thought-provoking examples and informed accounts, the author illustrates that deviance cannot be explained or understood in terms of absolutes or essential characteristics, nor can it be explained or understood apart from its social setting. This book approaches sex violence, theft, drugs, suicide, rape, and mental disorders in a way that shows the critical role of sociocultural factors and social reactions in constructions of deviance and crime.

NCIS Season 1 - 16 Klaus Hinrichsen, 2019-11-19 The always thrilling and entertaining cases of Leroy Jethro Gibbs, cover shot played by Mark Harmon, and his NCIS crew have been keeping a vast amount of followers all around the world glued to their seats and have made this series to one of the most successful in our times. Don't Fix Me; I'm Not Broken Sally Patton, 2011-06-16 Parenting from unconditional love rather than fear means recognizing the spiritual truth of our children rather than focusing on brokenness and deficits. No child is a mistake, no child is broken. Don't Fix Me, I'm Not Broken teaches the perspective that parenting is a spiritual classroom in which parents can learn to parent from a place of inner peace no matter what struggles their children are having When we trust God's voice of oneness in the world as it works through us and through our children we learn to accept what is We can either buy into the traditional stories about these labels or choose peace instead Parents of children with labels or any child who is struggling or just being every day difficult can either embrace this opportunity for spiritual growth or stay stuck in the anger pain and the sadness It is a choice

Figuring Maria Popova, 2020-01-28 NAMED A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR BY ESQUIRE AND BOOKPAGE Figuring explores the complexities of love and the human search for truth and meaning through the interconnected lives of several historical figures across four centuries beginning with the astronomer Johannes Kepler who discovered the laws of planetary motion and ending with the marine biologist and author Rachel Carson who catalyzed the environmental movement Stretching between these figures is a cast of artists writers and scientists mostly women mostly queer whose public contribution have risen out of their unclassifiable and often heartbreaking private relationships to change the way we understand experience and appreciate the universe Among them are the astronomer Maria Mitchell who paved the way for women in science the sculptor Harriet Hosmer who did the same in art the journalist and literary critic Margaret Fuller who sparked the feminist movement and the poet Emily Dickinson Emanating from these lives are larger questions about the measure of a good life and what it means to leave a lasting mark of betterment on an imperfect world Are achievement and acclaim enough for happiness Is genius Is love Weaving through the narrative is a set of peripheral figures Ralph Waldo Emerson Charles Darwin Elizabeth Barrett Browning Herman Melville Frederick Douglass Nathaniel Hawthorne and Walt Whitman and a tapestry of themes spanning music feminism the history of science the rise and decline of religion and how the intersection of astronomy poetry and Transcendentalist philosophy fomented the environmental movement Do What

Nithyananda (Paramahansa.), 2007 The Power of One Anette Ejning, 2011-01-01 We do not like to talk about loneliness We like even less to talk about the fact that the experience that faith does not automatically heal it This is a problem but what if it does not have to be that way What if we can tap into loneliness as a source of personal empowerment In The Power of One Anette Ejning makes exactly this case Relying on personal stories she first shows why romantic spiritual and social loneliness are particularly difficult to understand in the context of Christian faith She then reflects theologically on these three kinds of loneliness and describes it as a mystery that faith both does and does not heal them In response to this mystery she suggests thinking about loneliness as a privilege Arguing from the perspective of a theology of suffering she encourages each of us to tell our stories of loneliness from the perspective of the end God has in mind for us This means accepting and embracing loneliness as a means through which God raises us up and strengthens us to persevere in joy and faith Learning to do this is a privilege that gives us the opportunity to experience loneliness as a source of personal empowerment
