When Living Was A Labor Camp Camino Del Sol:

When Living was a Labor Camp Diana Garc'a, 2000 I write what I eat and smell says Diana Garc'a and her words are a bountiful harvest Her poems color the page with the vibrancy and sweetness of figs the freshness of tortillas and the sensuality of language In this Garc'a's first collection of poems she takes a bittersweet look back at the migrant labor camps of California and offers a tribute to the people who toiled there Writing from the heart of California's San Joaquin Valley she catapults the reader into the lives of the campesinos with their daily joys and sorrows Bold political and familial Garc'a's poems gift the reader with a sense of earth struggle and pride each line filled with the sounds of agrarian music from mariachi melodies to repatriation revolts Embodied with such spirit her poems rise with the convictions of power and equality
