Fatal Future? Richard M. Pearlstein, 2009-06-03 The nature and goals of terrorist organizations have changed profoundly since the Cold War standoff among the U S Soviet and Chinese superpowers gave way to the current polyplex global system in which the old rules of international engagement have been shattered by a new struggle for power among established states non state actors and emerging nations In this confusing state of global disorder terrorist organizations that are privately funded and highly flexible have become capable of carrying out incredibly destructive attacks anywhere in the world in support of a wide array of political religious and ethnic causes This groundbreaking book examines the evolution of terrorism in the context of the new global disorder Richard M Pearlstein categorizes three generations of terrorist organizations and shows how each arose in response to the global conditions of its time Focusing extensively on today's transnational i e privately funded and internationally operating terrorist organizations he devotes thorough attention to the two most virulent types ethnoterrorism and radical Islamic terrorism He also discusses the terrorist race for weapons of mass destruction and the types of attacks including cyberterrorism that are likely to occur in coming years Pearlstein concludes with a thought provoking assessment of the many efforts to combat transnational terrorism in the post September 11 period

FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, 1999      Routledge Companion to Military Conflict since 1945 John Richard Thackrah, 2008-10-27 From the depths of the Cold War to the War on Terror The Routledge Companion to Military Conflict since 1945 is an in depth and comprehensive reference guide to the confrontations that have shaped the modern age Covering the personalities the wars and the ideas that have been central to military conflict in the last sixty years this book includes discussion of specific campaigns from Vietnam to Iraq international organizations including NATO the UN and the Arab League leading historical figures from Idi Amin to George W Bush genocides Proxy wars and the Guerrilla campaigns key concepts in international relations from Defense to Chemical Warfare the causes of conflict from the religion to the fight for diminishing resources Exploring all of this and more in an easy to use A Z format with guides to further reading this is an essential resource for students of international relations military history and conflict and strategic studies at all levels

Facing Terror Jim Rodgers, Tim Kullman, 2002 Facing Terror is an interdisciplinary effort to examine the sociopolitical roots and consequences of radical right extremism and domestic terrorism in the United States This work is an analytical treatment of contemporary domestic terrorism and the groups and leaders associated with such extremism Presented and organized in textbook form complete with instructional aids authors Jim Rodgers and Tim Kullman incorporate the social science model of system's based policy analysis in the study of American policy responses to domestic terrorism from 1970 to the present Rodgers and Kullman present a tremendous amount of historical and contemporary research on domestic extremism in responses presented in the text They provide the student with a complete but concise examination of domestic terrorism with an eye toward the future through the presentation of concrete options and suggestions for change in how domestic terrorism issues are dealt with      When the Eagle Screams Stephen Bowman, 2001 When The Eagle Screams is a strikingly urgent and timely book on the most critical issue of national security in today's new and volatile world order The book that predicted the World Trade Center and Oklahoma City tragedies also offers solutions
