Decisions and Reports United States. Securities and Exchange Commission, 2003 SEC Docket United States. Securities and Exchange Commission, 1999 Contemporary South Africa and the Political Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose, Isaac Khambule, Nene Ernest Khalema, 2025-02-21 South Africa's struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid. As such, understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa's place in it is of great importance. This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post-apartheid South African state has recast its nation-building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post-apartheid constitution, policy directives and democratic political integration, economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post-apartheid state's apparent neo-liberal turn. The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state. These trends include the impact of globalisation, regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy, thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development. This volume will be a valuable resource to academics, researchers and students in the fields of regional studies, economics and political theory as well as policymakers, planners and local economic development practitioners. The impact of forms of capital on Corporate Entrepreneurship in State Owned Enterprises Phelelani Mpanza, Club Readership, 2018-06-13 The book explores how three forms of entrepreneurial capital: Economic capital, Human capital and Social Capital can be adopted by SA SOEs as a growth strategy to become more innovative to compete effectively in dynamic and rapidly changing markets. SOEs play a critical role in the economic pursuit of advancing economic growth and developmental objectives of the country. The book gives theoretical and empirical evidence on the role each form of capital plays in the pursuit for growing an established business. The book is ideal for any postgraduate students in commerce, policy makers and business persons. Regulation and Finance in the Port Industry Claudio Ferrari, Hercules Haralambides, Sergio Prete, Alessio Tei, 2022-01-28 This book addresses the latest organizational regulatory and governance issues of main port systems, linking them to the financial aspects that are currently in use regarding investments in the port industry. A general review of port management and operations is complemented by analysis of country-specific systems and a look at how ports could develop in the future. This book aims to examine how different port organizational and regulatory contexts affect port investment practices and related financial tools. The book is of use to researchers and practitioners interested in maritime economics and transportation studies.

Mid-Coast Corridor Transit Project, San Diego, California: Draft Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement: Report
United States. Federal Transit Administration, San Diego Association of Governments, 2013 Public Roads ,2007

Radioactive Waste Management ,1981 Perspectives on Africa-China Infrastructural and Industrial Cooperation
Bhaso Ndzendze, David Monyae, 2023-10-19 This edited volume discusses infrastructural cooperation and industrial cooperation between China and several countries in Africa. In contributions by academics and practitioners alike, the book distills the conceptual implications of empirical and ethnographic findings and explores probable future developments in the Africa-China relationship. The chapters deal with numerous countries across the African continent, covering nearly all regions, showcasing the dynamics of China's relations with different countries while highlighting African agency over major infrastructure projects and industrial activity. Providing an in-depth look at the evolving economic cooperation across these two regions, this volume will appeal to researchers and students of African politics, international relations, area studies, and comparative politics. The book will be of relevance to policymakers in governments, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations involved in policy formulation, particularly regarding the Africa-China relationship.
