What The Water Gave Me Poems After Frida Kahlo:

What the Water Gave Me: Poems After Frida Kahlo Pascale Petit, 2013-01-18 What the Water Gave Me contains fifty two poems in the voice of the Mexican painter Frida Kahlo Some of the poems are close interpretations of Kahlo's work while others are parallels or version homages where Petit draws on her experience as a visual artist to create alternative paintings with words More than just a verse biography this collection explores how Kahlo transformed trauma into art after the artist's near fatal bus accident Petit with her vivid style her feel for nature and her understanding of pain and redemption fully inhabits Kahlo's world Each poem is an evocation of how art works on the pain spectrum laced with splashes of ferocious colour Their apparent shared sensibility makes the ventriloquism of these poems entirely unforced and while Kahlo's voice is subtly distinguished from Petit's own both women have a way of taking painful private experiences and transmuting them through imagery into something that has the power of folklore They capture the unsettling spirit of Frida Kahlo and her work perfectly Poetry London No other British poet I am aware of can match the powerful mythic imagination of Pascale Petit Les Murray Times Literary Supplement The Treekeeper's Tale Pascale Petit, 2012-10-18 Well known for the fierce confessional imagery of her first three books The Treekeeper's Tale points towards another facet of the poet's gift an intense feeling for the natural world allied with a personal response to historical incidents and to other lands The title section of this four part collection adopts the giant coast redwood trees in California as a particular talisman Lyrical resonant strange and imaginative these poems echo in the mind and leave an indelible impression of the mysterious atmosphere of the redwood forests The second section Afterlives takes us on journeys to the past as in the burial of a Siberian priestess and on trips to other places including China Nepal and Kazakhstan The colourful paintings of the German expressionist Franz Marc such as the famous red and blue horses series provide the key to the third section War Horse where dramatic imagery of the horses blends and contrasts with the tragic fate of Europe during World War One The final part The Chrysanthemum Lantern features sensitive translations from Chinese originals The Ekphrastic Encounter in Contemporary British Poetry and Elsewhere David Kennedy, 2016-03-23 Examining a wide range of ekphrastic poems David Kennedy argues that contemporary British poets writing out of both mainstream and avant garde traditions challenge established critical models of ekphrasis with work that is more complex than representational or counter representational responses to paintings in museums and galleries Even when the poem appears to be straightforwardly representational it is often selectively so producing a virtual work that doesn't exist in actuality Poets such as Kelvin Corcoran Peter Hughes and Gillian Clarke Kennedy suggests relish the ekphrastic encounter as one in which word and image become mutually destabilizing Similarly other poets engage with the source artwork as a performance that participates in the ethical realm Showing that the ethical turn in ekphrastic poetry is often powerfully gendered Kennedy also surveys a range of ekphrastic poets from the Renaissance and nineteenth century to trace a tradition of female ekphrastic poetry that includes Pauline Stainer and Frances Presley Kennedy concludes with a critique of ekphrastic exercises in creative writing teaching proposing that ekphrastic writing that takes greater account of performance spectatorship may offer more fruitful models for the classroom than the narrativizing of images

Blue Wren Bron Bateman, 2022-08-02 Blue Wren is a beautiful and moving body of work from poet Bron Bateman Using Frida Kahlo as her inspiration she has crafted a collection of poems that builds on the themes from Of Memory and Furniture of healing and reclaiming her past In her new book Bron experiments with different forms such as magical realism prose poetry and free verse with many poems addressed to her lover her sister her children and the strong influence that her mother had on her life

The Zoo Father Pascale Petit, 2013-02-14 Shortlisted for the TS Eliot Prize this is the second collection from a poet of powerful emotions and vivid imagery The Zoo Father underlines the author's reputation as a questing poet capable of outstanding imagistic flourishes and surprising associations This extraordinary and powerful volume is comprised of two sections the first about with the poet's relationship with her father the second with her mother Section One is heavily imbued with imagery of the poet's travels in South America and her researches in the cultures and ecology of the Venezuelan rain forest Pain anger bewilderment are refracted through a rich often sensual imagery of fauna hallucinatory drugs and tribal beliefs This gives the poems their originality and prevents subject matter of childhood abandonment and abuse becoming too harrowing The imagery adapted from shamanistic beliefs is especially memorable Section Two is set in southern France in an almost equally exotic location of vineyards and dinosaur plateaux It concerns the poet's family holidays in the vineyard and her rediscovery and subsequent repossession of that place Once again the poems delineate a primary relationship with the poet's mother with the lushness of the imagery putting into surprising context the development of that relationship Fauverie Pascale Petit, 2014-10-15 The Fauverie of this book is the big cat house in the Jardin des Plantes zoo But the word also evokes the Fauves primitive painters who used raw colour straight from the tube Like The Zoo Father Petit's acclaimed second collection this volume has childhood trauma and a dying father at its heart while Paris takes centre stage a city savage as the Amazon haunted by Aramis the black jaguar and a menagerie of wild animals Transforming childhood horrors to ultimately mourn a lost parent Fauverie redeems the darker forces of human nature while celebrating the ferocity and grace of endangered species Five poems from Fauverie won the 2013 Manchester Poetry Prize and the manuscript in progress was awarded an Arts Council England Grant for the Arts No other British poet I am aware of can match the powerful mythic imagination of Pascale Petit Les Murray Times Literary Supplement Books of the Year Pascale Petit creates forms and strategies that go beyond common knowledge of what a poem can or should do her poetry never behaves itself or betrays itself and contemporary British poetry is all the livelier for it David Morley Magma

Anthropocene Poetry Yvonne Reddick, 2023-11-03 Anthropocene Poetry Place Environment and Planet argues that the idea of the Anthropocene is inspiring new possibilities for poetry It can also change the way we read and interpret poems If environmental poetry was once viewed as linked to place this book shows how poets are now grappling with environmental issues from the local to the planetary climate change and the extinction crisis nuclear weapons and waste plastic pollution and the petroleum industry This book intervenes in debates about culture and science traditional poetic form and experimental ecopoetics to show how poets are collaborating with environmental scientists and joining environmental activist movements to respond to this time of crisis From the canonical work of Ted Hughes and Seamus Heaney to award winning poets Alice Oswald Pascale Petit Kei Miller and Karen McCarthy Woolf this book explores major figures from the past alongside acclaimed contemporary voices It reveals Seamus Heaney's support for conservation causes and Ted Hughes's astonishingly forward thinking research on climate change it discusses how Pascale Petit has given poetry to Extinction Rebellion and how Karen McCarthy Woolf set sail with scientists to write about plastic pollution This book deploys research on five poetry archives in the UK USA and Ireland and the author's insider insights into the commissioning processes and collaborative methods that shaped important contemporary poetry publications Anthropocene Poetry finds that environmental poetry is flourishing in the face of ecological devastation Such poetry speaks of the anxieties and dilemmas of our age and searches for paths towards resilience and resistance Soul Feathers Carol Ann Duffy, 2011
