When I Lived In Modern Times:

When I Lived in Modern Times Linda Grant, 2002-12-31 Winner of the Orange Prize for Fiction In the spring of 1946 Evelyn Sert stands on the deck of a ship bound for Palestine For the twenty year old from London it is a time of adventure and change when all things seem possible Swept up in the spirited chaotic churning of her new strange country she joins a kibbutz then moves on to the teeming metropolis of Tel Aviv to find her own home and a group of friends as eccentric and disparate as the city itself She falls in love with a man who is not what he seems when she becomes an unwitting spy for a nation fighting to be born When I Lived in Modern Times is an unsentimental coming of age story of both a country and a young immigrant that provides an unforgettable glimpse of a time and place rarely observed Publishers Weekly starred review

Transcultural English Studies Frank Schulze-Engler, Sissy Helff, 2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies

Traumatic Memory and the Ethical, Political and Transhistorical Functions of Literature Susana Onega, Constanza del Río, Maite Escudero-Alías, 2017-12-01 This volume addresses the construction and artistic representation of traumatic memories in the contemporary Western world from a variety of inter and trans disciplinary critical approaches and perspectives ranging from the cultural political historical and ideological to the ethical and aesthetic and distinguishing between individual collective and cultural traumas The chapters introduce complementary concepts from diverse thinkers including Cathy Caruth Jacques Derrida Judith Butler Homi Bhabha Abraham and Torok and

Joyce Carol Oates they also draw from fields of study such as Memory Studies Theory of Affects Narrative and Genre Theory and Cultural Studies Traumatic Memory and the Political Economic and Transhistorical Functions of Literature addresses trauma as a culturally embedded phenomenon and deconstructs the idea of trauma as universal transhistorical and abstract

Renaissance Humanism, from the Middle Ages to Modern Times John Monfasani, 2016-12-05 Starting with an essay on the Renaissance as the concluding phase of the Middle Ages and ending with appreciations of Paul Oskar Kristeller the great twentieth century scholar of the Renaissance this new volume by John Monfasani brings together seventeen articles that focus both on individuals such as Erasmus of Rotterdam Angelo Poliziano Marsilio Ficino and Niccol Perotti and on large scale movements such as the spread of Italian humanism Ciceronianism Biblical criticism and the Plato Aristotle Controversy In addition to entering into the persistent debate on the nature of the Renaissance the articles in the volume also engage what of late have become controversial topics namely the shape and significance of Renaissance humanism and the character of the Platonic Academy in Florence
