When Your People Are Grieving Leading In Times Of Loss:

A Professional's Guide to Understanding Trauma and Loss David E. Balk, Tracy Wong, Janet R. Balk, 2023-06-05 The purpose of this book is to provide vital information regarding loss and trauma to practicing counselors and therapists Trauma and loss are pervasive presenting problems many counselors and therapists possess scant understanding of trauma and loss and little if any attention is paid to trauma or to loss in the graduate training of clinical psychology and counseling psychology students The book is organized into four sections which cover an overview of loss and trauma key conceptual frameworks for understanding loss and trauma review of several types of events producing trauma and loss and interventions addressing loss and trauma A key contribution of the book is the focus on losses caused by death and losses due to other reasons The contributions to practice include the overview of what is known about trauma and about loss examination of several frameworks for organizing both understanding of and working with traumatized and bereaved clients rich descriptive cases of individuals coping with various traumatic events and the losses embedded in the trauma and presentation of various interventions including changes that can be made in the graduate education of practitioners

The Ministry of Lament Gene T. Fowler, 2010-07-01 For pastors and congregations caring for those who are grieving is a very important but difficult job Gene Fowler believes that the church needs a theological understanding of bereavement that can inform the ministry of caring for grieving people The heart of The Ministry of Lament addresses the relationship between bereavement and the Christian faith in the service of caring ministry Throughout the book Fowler brings the psalms of lament into dialogue with a contemporary understanding of mourning so that the entire grief process can be addressed theologically

The Ministry of Lament Gene Fowler, 2022-05-17 Through his own hard won wisdom as a pastor who is thoroughly acquainted with grief Gene Fowler shows how these biblical and contemporary understandings of lament provide invaluable guidance for the pastor who knowing that the grieving of irrevocable losses is an ever present reality in the life of the congregation seeks realistic and reliable guidance in how to care for the bereaved and how to enable the congregation to become a genuine community of fellow mourners Donald Capps Princeton Theological Seminary Gene Fowler skillfully maneuvers the winding road of bereavement with the psalms of lament as accompaniment With attention to the terrain of individuality as well as the congregational setting Fowler traverses new territory in a twenty first century approach to caring for grieving people Unlike an interstate with its clear ramps markers and exits the valley of the shadow of death is uneven with hidden crevices detours and dimly lit passages Challenging the traditional understanding of grief as a series of universal stages unfolding according to a preconceived timetable Fowler draws from psychotherapists and theologians to ground a new relationship between spirituality and grief Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Perkins School of Theology SMU While making a compelling case for how notions of care have been hijacked truncated and curtailed Gene Fowler expands the ability of caregivers and congregations to provide the long term acts of faithful healing that deep loss requires The book is given particular clarity through examples of movies books stories and Psalms that help healers see anew their task to compassionately and creatively encourage the bereaved as they rewrite the story of their lives Andrew L McDonald Senior Pastor Westminster Church Lincoln Nebraska

Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief Steven Jeffers, Harold Ivan Smith, 2018-10-08 This work includes a foreword by John D Morgan Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Coordinator for Kings College Center for Education about Death and Bereavement Ontario Canada This practical resource guides the reader through all aspects of the grieving process and offers thought provoking and inspirational advice on support With exercises tips and contacts for further assistance Finding a Sacred Oasis in Grief provides a comprehensive understanding of this potentially difficult and complex topic It examines different types of grief and various approaches along with reference guides to particular religions and their traditions adopting a comprehensive multi faith approach Pastoral care providers and religious leaders will find the unique hands on approach invaluable as will members of support organisations and volunteer carers It is also ideal for seminary and ministry students counsellors therapists and other care professionals Gives caregivers the tools to help dying and grieving persons face the best and worst that life has to offer It is the worst because death means the end of the attachments that make life worthwhile It is the best because it shows us what is truly meaningful and important in life Mortality is a great gift if we have the knowledge and the courtesy to face it John D Morgan in the Foreword

Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life's losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts Living, Dying, Death, and Bereavement (Volume Two) David E. Balk, 2020-10-21 This two volume book offers extensive interviews with persons who have made significant contributions to thanatology the study of dying death loss and grief The book s in depth conversations provide compelling life stories of interest to clinicians researchers and educated lay persons and to specialists interested in oral history as a means of gaining rich understandings of persons lives Several disciplines that contribute to thanatology are represented in this book such as psychology religious studies art literature history social work nursing theology education psychiatry sociology philosophy and anthropology The book is unique no other text offers such a comprehensive insightful and personal review of work in the thanatology field The salience of thanatology is obvious when we consider several topics including the aging demographics of most countries the leading causes of death the devastation of COVID 19 the realities of how most persons die the growth both of hospice and of efforts within medicine to ensure that a good death becomes the norm of medical practice and increases in the number of countries and states permitting physician assisted suicide This second volume includes conversations with 16 thanatologists a rich extensive bibliography an index of names and subjects and a biographical sketch of the author The experts interviewed in this volume include Danai Papadatou Holly Prigerson Jack Jordan Illene Cupit Heather Servaty Seib Irwin Sandler Simon Shimshon Rubin Carla Sofka Harold Ivan Smith and Phyllis Kosminsky A Pastor's Practical Guide to Funerals Lee Franklin, 2013-09-17 This straight forward book integrates the pragmatic how to of the funeral process especially in dealing with difficult funerals with the art of being a caring and healing presence before during and after the funeral While conducting a funeral is one the great privileges of ministry pastors must be skilled and ready to guide grieving family and friends through the process of saying goodbye and burying a loved one With sample services prayers sermon themes and Bible readings this book will help pastors hear name and integrate relevant illustration into a respectful story of the deceased s life a story that is appropriate to the particular circumstances of each situation Contents include Preparing for Death Caring through Anticipated Death Caring through Sudden Death Meeting with Family before the Funeral Service Creating the Funeral Service Creating the Funeral Sermon and Following up with Griefers Suffering, Belief, Hope Ghislain Tshikendwa Matadi, 2007 Outside the Camp Garth Cross, 2017-01-13 If you're looking for a feel good read Outside the Camp is not it If you want joy without lament grace without sin light without darkness or love without pain read something else In fact the wince factor of this book is through the roof and I thought someone ought to warn you But if you want to read something that is profoundly and Biblically true revolutionary and life changing this is it Garth has given Gods people a wonderful gift and I rise up and call him blessed You will too Steve Brown professor author radio show host and leader of Key Life Network I have more thoughts emotions and places your story took me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastors journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of Gods favor the faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected The book concludes with a consideration of Gods intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm

When Your People are Grieving Harold Ivan Smith, 2001 In this easy to read book written directly to the clergy well known grief specialist Harold Ivan Smith probes the many facets of grief ministry presenting practical advice in dealing with one of the most challenging yet rewarding parts of ministry in the local church
